LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER, 1868.

N. B.—Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. A very few classes of works are omitted from this List, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogue or its Supplement; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order before Goldsmith instead of after it. Initials enclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Dickens, C. (J. H.) A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. B. H. means Bates Hall; R. R., Reading Room.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

A Particular Privilege

Is, in this Library, accorded to all persons desiring any book not in its possession, of asking, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant will be notified of its reception. If duplicates are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions.

The Bulletins are for sale in the Library at two cents each.

PRISON DISCIPLINE SOCIETY, BOSTON.

We are indebted to Messrs. T. R. Marvin & Son for the remainder of the edition of the Reports of this Society, (about thirty sets,) which make three stout octavo volumes. The stereotype plates having been melted, their value is enhanced. We offer them in exchange.

PAMPHLETS.

We wish to renew our request to the public for pamphlets. Gifts of all kinds of this sort of printed matter will come very opportunely, now that we are arranging for cataloguing and binding our pamphlet collection, in order that it may be made of the best service. Packages will be gladly sent for, if word is given at the Library, by mail or otherwise.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF

NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER, 1868.

N. B.—Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. A very few classes of works are omitted from this List, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogue or its Supplement; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order before Goldsmith instead of after it. Initials enclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Dickens, C. (J. H.) A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. B. H. means Bates Hall; R. R., Reading Room.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

Life of Philip Melancthon. Boston, 1837 ..... 5590a.1
Milton, J. Paradise lost. Boston, 1855. 2v 5590.1

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

A Particular Privilege

Is, in this Library, accorded to all persons desiring any book not in its possession, of asking, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant will be notified of its reception. If duplicates are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions.

The Bulletins are for sale in the Library at two cents each.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

EDWARD CAPEN, Librarian.
JOSEPH SYKES, Office Secretary.
WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.
WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room, provided with seats for one hundred readers, is closed at 10, P. M.

The Fine Arts Room, where ladies can use the Lower Hall catalogues, is closed at 8, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8, P. M. This hall now contains over 28,000 volumes.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6, P. M., from October to March, and at 7, P. M., from April to September. This hall now contains over 118,000 volumes.

Persons Admitted to Use the Library.

Any person above the age of fourteen years may use the Reading Room (which has now by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country), and, if above sixteen, may make use of the books within the building.

All inhabitants of Boston above the age of sixteen years; all Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city, though not residents; and all, even if under sixteen, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, and are still inhabitants of Boston, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All classes in this paragraph must have signed the application card and given satisfactory reference to two citizens. The registration takes place in the Fine Arts Room.

All members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city, as the Trustees may have especially permitted, are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

THE CATALOGUES.

LOWER HALL.—This popular department contains upwards of 28,000 volumes. Author, title, or subject being known, a book may be found by consulting the Finding List (for sale at the desk at two cents each) of that class of books to which it belongs. The lists now issued are:

1. Fiction and Juvenile books (3d edition).
2. Sciences, Arts, and Professions.
3. Biography and Travels.
4. History, Politics, etc.
5. Books in Foreign Languages.

That for Poetry, the Drama, and Collections (like Bohn's Libraries, etc.), now in press, will complete the series of Finding Lists. For books in this department the reader must, for the present, consult the old catalogue of 1858, and its eight supplements, which are provided on the tables.

All current additions, except duplicates, are noted in the Manuscript Daily Bulletin, which is kept at the desk, and in the successive numbers of the printed Bi-monthly Bulletins. The books of this hall are known by having shelf-numbers below 2110.

It is the intention to provide duplicates in this hall to as great an extent as the circulation will warrant; and suggestions regarding particular books will be gladly received, blanks for making such suggestions being provided at the desk.

BATES HALL.—The basis of the printed Indexes is the Card Catalogue, which shows the titles at greater length, and furnishes more extensive cross-references. In cases of need, this can be consulted. To find a book in the printed Indexes, look under the author's name; or under the first word of the title (not an article or preposition), if anonymous. If these are not known to the seeker, look under the word designating the subject of the book, selecting the most specific word possible; and, if not found there, examine the titles under any words referred to in the note appended to such specific word. Look under the place of their location, for societies, public institutions, and their publications; except when a geographical name begins a society's name, then look under that word.

Books added since 1866 will be found entered in the Interleaved Catalogue, kept in the hall; but no cross-references under subjects are entered there. Facilities under these heads can be sought in the Card Catalogue, upon application.

A Manuscript Bulletin kept at the desk will show the books added from day to day, if, in the case of American books, they have been printed within a year, and of foreign books, within three years. New accessions of an older date are entered in the Interleaved Catalogue only.

In the printed Bi-monthly Bulletins all books numbered above 2110 are in this hall.

The printed Indexes, in two volumes, are for sale at $2.00 each, and the printed Bulletins at two cents each, at the desk.

STARRED BOOKS IN THE BATES HALL.

Stars are prefixed only to the title which has the imprint, and not to cross-references.

Books with two stars against their numbers were given to the library on condition of their not leaving the building.

Three stars are put against such books as it would be very difficult or expensive to replace; and, to insure permission to take them from the building, sufficient reasons must be stated in the application, which comes under the supervision of certain Trustees.

A larger class of books have one star attached to them, and they are of several kinds. 1. Those not easily replaced. 2. Those belonging to long sets, which, if broken, lose much of their value, and which it is often difficult to complete again. 3. Those which from their nature are books of reference, and fitted to serve a greater number in the building than when in circulation. 4. Those which are duplicates of books in the Lower Hall, where they freely circulate, and where sufficient copies will be kept to meet the demand, and which are put in this hall for purposes of reference only.

Under circumstances requiring it, judged of in each case both as regards the book wanted and the applicant's needs, applications for taking such one-starred books will be granted, if filled out in the blanks provided. These applications come under the decision of the Superintendent, or such officer as he may appoint for the purpose.

All these books can be used in the hall without such application; and readers will bear in mind that oftentimes they had better subject themselves to the inconvenience of consulting them in the building (and they will be retained for evening use in the Lower Hall, if word is given at the desk) than that the complete efficiency of the Library should be hazarded by taking them away. They will remember that elsewhere such a collection as this in the Bates Hall would invariably be considered as most serviceable when used for reference only. Not another public library in the world offers an equally extensive and valuable collection for general circulation.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF

JANUARY AND FEBRUARY, 1869.

N. B.—Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. A few classes of works are omitted from this List, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogue or its Supplement; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue: Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order before Goldsmith instead of after it. Initials enclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Dickens, C. (J. H.) A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. B. H. means Bates Hall; R. R., Reading Room.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

An effort has been made, with considerable success, to procure the publications and printed documents, etc., of all such associations in this country and in Europe. Although their titles have been—with one or two exceptions—omitted from the "Bulletin," they can be consulted on application in the Bates Hall.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Flor ence, once a year.

DUPLICATES IN PERIODICALS.

☞ Lists of this kind, which we shall from time to time print, will show what we have to offer in conducting exchanges. Accessions to our duplicates are constantly coming in, and we shall be glad to open accounts with other libraries and with individuals.

Valuable Gift to the Library.

Our fellow-citizen, and one of the original Board of Trustees of the Library, Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, now in Rome, has testified his continued interest in the institution by purchasing the excellent collection of engravings which formed part of the estate of the late Cardinal Tosti, and by presenting it to this Library. It is understood to contain ten thousand plates, many of them of the rarest kind, and six hundred of them are handsomely framed. The others are richly bound in volumes. The gift is accompanied by an antique bust, given to the Library by the representative and heir of the cardinal, who desires to unite with the purchaser of the engravings in signifying a kind regard for the institution. The gifts are expected to arrive during the spring.

Pamphlets.

We wish to renew our request to the public for pamphlets. Gifts of all kinds of this sort of printed matter will come very opportunely, now that we are arranging for cataloguing and binding our pamphlet collection, in order that it may be made of the best service. If word is given at the Library, by mail or otherwise, packages will be gladly sent for.

A Particular Privilege

Is, in this Library, accorded to all persons, desiring any book not in its possession, of asking, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant will be notified of its reception. If duplicates are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions.

Special Notice.

For the purpose of SHORTENING THE TIME REQUIRED TO GET A BOOK, a change has been made in the method of charging books to borrowers.

Slips, provided at the desk, must have the shelf-numbers of the books desired filled in by the applicant, who will also write PLAINLY the name and residence as on his card, and the CARD must be presented each time with the slip.

The cards now in use may be used as long as serviceable, but the numbers of the books desired will no longer be written on them, but on the slips.

It will be better for each card-holder to exchange his card (in the Fine Arts Room) for the one to be issued hereafter which will serve for either Hall.

The Use of the Library

Is increasing in a ratio never before known. In the BATES HALL, from the time the Library opened, after the last annual examination, to the 1st of March, the total number of issues of books to readers was by actual count, in 1867, 13,336; in 1868, 18,113; and in 1869, 22,379. For the month of February in these years, the two classes of issues were as follows: —

1867,	Hall use,	1,068;	Home use,	1,668;	total,	2,736.
1868,	"	2,246	"	2,294	"	4,540.
1869,	"	2,059	"	2,635	"	4,694.

In the LOWER HALL, the total issues to March 1st, from the beginning of the Library year, were, for 1867, 99,959; for 1868, 82,362; for 1869, 101,756. The enumeration in this Hall for the last two years has been from actual count; for 1867, it was taken from an automatic "numerator," now discarded, which was proved to exaggerate 14,000 in the course of a year. The issues from this Hall are probably now several thousands in excess of the largest delivery ever before made in the same period.

In the PERIODICAL READING ROOM, the number of magazines issued to readers in the month of February, for 1867, was 8,331; for 1868, 11,118; for 1869, 12,235.

Regulations

For the use of the Library, as lately amended, can be obtained gratuitously on application at the desk in either Hall.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

EDWARD CAPEN, Librarian.
JOSEPH SYKES, Office Secretary.
WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.
WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room, provided with seats for one hundred readers, is closed at 10, P. M.

The Fine Arts Room, where ladies can use the Lower Hall catalogues, is closed at 8, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8, P. M. This hall now contains more than 28,000 volumes.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6, P. M., from October to March, and at 7, P. M., from April to September. This hall now contains more than 118,000 volumes.

Persons Admitted to Use the Library.

Any person above the age of fourteen years may use the Reading Room (which has now by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country), and, if above sixteen, may make use of the books within the building.

All inhabitants of Boston above the age of sixteen years; all Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city, though not residents; and all, even if under sixteen, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, and are still inhabitants of Boston, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All classes in this paragraph must have signed the application card and given satisfactory reference to two citizens. The registration takes place in the Fine Arts Room.

All members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city, as the Trustees may have especially permitted, are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

Classes using the Library.

By an examination of the application slips, it has been found that, among those regularly entitled to draw books from the library, the females bear the proportion to the males of about five to six. More than two-thirds of the females have no business occupation; while less than one-twelfth of the males are in that category.

Of 1542 females with regular occupations, 300 were pupils or students; 375 were teachers, or of other professional employments; 587 were engaged in some mechanical vocation; and the rest were saleswomen, users of the pen in some capacity, or of various other occupations.

Of 6054 males whose occupations were noted, 1645 (including 154 carpenters, 152 printers, 146 machinists, 77 tailors, and 74 painters) pursued some trade or manufacture; 2025 were in some mercantile employment, — embracing 911 clerks, 350 salesmen, 320 merchants, 226 bookkepeers, etc.; 523 were of some professional occupation, — as 106 lawyers, 88 editors and reporters, 82 clergymen, 100 teachers, 152 physicians, surgeons, dentists, etc.; 129 public officials; 237 of the laboring classes; 158 of artistic pursuits; 224 dealers of various kinds; 750 pupils and students; 200 shop or store boys, etc.

The above enumerations have no reference to the large numbers who use books in the building, without having applied for cards to obtain books for home use.

To Librarians.

A circular, covering 30 questions concerning library economy and experience, which we have addressed to over 280 libraries in this country and Europe, has elicited 173 responses; and of 211 sent to American libraries, no reply has been received from 70; and of 73 sent to foreign libraries, none from 41. It is to be hoped that all librarians interested in tabulating information, which will be published for the benefit of all, will be willing to assist in accumulating this valuable material; and no librarian, because of the insignificant size of the collection in his charge, need hesitate communicating with us, as the class of facts from such libraries is quite as valuable for the public good, and for the enlightenment of such as have control of similar institutions, or contemplate founding them, as the experience and data of the larger collections. We shall be glad on application to send a blank prepared for answers to the following questions: —

1. When established? 2. Present yearly income, and from what source, funds or appropriations? and if from both, what part from each? 3. Is it a circulating or reference library, or both? 4. Total number of volumes, and, if divided into Circulating and Reference Departments, the number to each? 5. Average yearly increase of the last three years? 6. Are you particularly strong in any specialty, and what? 7. What proportion of your use of books is in novels? In juveniles? 8. What is your yearly total use of books? Of these, what part are used in the building only? 9. How many people are using your library? 10. Do you require pecuniary guarantees, or vouchers from responsible persons, of those who take books away, whether minors or of age? 11. How many books do you lose from the unfaithfulness of borrowers? 12. How many are worn out in a year? 13. What proportion of your purchases are novels? 14. Of your yearly accessions, what part are donations? 15. Are your catalogues printed, or manuscript, and, if manuscript, do you use the card system, or some other? 16. Have you a reading-room for periodicals and newspapers, and how many of each kind do you provide? 17. Do you issue printed reports yearly, or at other times? 18. What is your library staff? 19. Do you cover your books? 20. How many sale duplicates have you? 21. How large is your pamphlet collection, and is it catalogued? 22. How freely do you buy particular books you are asked by your frequenters to purchase? 23. Is your library open evenings? and for what hours? 24. What part of the year is your library closed? Is it closed annually for examination? 25. Are your books arranged by classifications, and how minute are these classifications? 26. Is there any rival library in your neighborhood which materially prevents a larger use of yours? 27. Between what ages are the most of your frequenters? 28. What is your system of charging books to borrowers? 29. How freely do you buy duplicates of popular books? 30. If you have printed Catalogues, Reports, Rules, or By-Laws, will you kindly enclose them to us, if not already sent?

The Appleton Gift.

Information has been received regarding the Tosti Collection of Engravings, recently presented to the library by our townsman, Thomas G. Appleton, Esq., that it contains 653 frames, some having more than one print in them, that ten of them are of extraordinary size; and that there are also 121 bound volumes and portfolios, — the whole embracing, it is represented, 10,000 different engravings. The brief list which has been received would indicate that the collection is in every respect first class. It is supposed that they would leave Leghorn by vessel for Boston some time in June.

The Peace Jubilee.

We are desirous of making a collection for preservation of every thing printed in relation to this festival, whether broadside, newspaper, pamphlet, book, engraving or music, and would appreciate any efforts of our friends to assist us.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF

MARCH, APRIL, AND MAY, 1869.

N. B. — The books whose titles are embraced in this List are, for the most part, either recent American and foreign publications, or they are works both old and rare; but, in some cases, titles of books included in neither of these categories have been given, for particular reasons. Certain classes of works have been uniformly omitted, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogues of the Library; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. — A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — B. H. means Bates Hall; R. R., Reading Room. — In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order before Goldsmith instead of after it. — Initials enclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Dickens, C. (J. H.)

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

CRITICISMS on the Rolliad. P. 1, 9th ed.; 2, 4th ed. [Appended,] Political eclogues. London, 1790, 91. sm. 8° 4556.8

Note. — The Rolliad, a satire upon Colonel John Rolle and the first Pitt administration (1783–1801), is a part of an imaginary epic poem, which is found only in the "Criticisms," in the form of pretended extracts. It first appeared in 1784, 85, and was followed by Political eclogues, and afterwards by Probationary odes for the laureateship, and by Political miscellanies. The writers are said to have been Richard Tickell, Joseph Richardson, Lord John Townshend, Gen. Richard Fitzpatrick, Mr. Hare, George Ellis, W. H. Reid, the Rev. Bate Dudley, Mr. [George Bryan?] Brummell, Mr. [William?] Boscawen, Mr. [William?] Pearce, the bishop of Ossory [William Beresford?], Gen. John Burgoyne, Sir Robert Adair, Dr. French Lawrence, and Sir John Hawkins.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

Pamphlets.

THE collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have some 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not.

To the Medical Profession.

It is not supposed we hazard a denial, if we assert that the Public Library of Boston offers facilities for investigation in medicine and surgery not equalled by any other collection in New England, and surpassed by few in the country, as it numbers at present not much short of six thousand volumes. Besides this, there is a large collection of pamphlets, all of which are now arranged, and will be, before many months are passed, catalogued, bound, and placed on the shelves. This department embraces over five per cent. of the entire general collection in the Bates Hall; and, heretofore, the use of this section has been over six per cent. of the whole issues of this hall. The profession in Boston and vicinity maintain so high rank in the investigations of their science, that it needs but be known how excellent a working apparatus this library offers them greatly to increase its usefulness. The ordinance of the city for the government of the library restricts the circulation of its books to "the citizens and residents" of the city; but no visitors are ever denied the use of the books within the building. We aim in this department, as in every other, to be the literary purveyors of every class of students and investigators; and we rarely refuse to procure, through our agents in all the great book-marts of the world, any special monograph or other work that may be needed by any user of the library, if we do not chance already to possess it. Specialists may prefer to buy the particular books that they most require, rather than frequent a public library for the same, but there are some works, like Mascagni's Anatomia Universa (of which we have a magnificent colored copy), that few private collectors can well afford to purchase; while still others, like the long sets of the important journals of all countries, are too extensive for private shelves. Most of these last the medical student will find in this department of our library. The physiologist will find here a very excellent gathering of works on physiology. The larger part of Professor Brown-Séquard's library, when he left this country, was transferred to our shelves; and pains were taken to supply such deficiencies as we then had left. If any are still noticed, we should be glad to be informed of them.

A Special Privilege

Is, in this Library, accorded to all persons, desiring any book not in its possession, of asking, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant will be notified of its receptiont. If duplicates are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions.

Wanted.

Odd Fellows. The Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts for May, August, and November, 1847; and for November, 1848.

The Bulletins are for Sale

In the Library at two cents each. The Finding Lists of the Lower Hall (five in number) are also for sale, at two cents each, and the Indexes to the books in the Bates Hall (in two volumes) at $2.00 each.

The Finding List for alcoves 3, 13, 8, and 18, containing Poetry, the Drama, Essays, and Collections (like Bohn's Libraries, Constable's Miscellany, etc.), is in an advanced state of preparation, and its publication will take place as soon as it can be read through the press with the proper care.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

EDWARD CAPEN, Librarian.
JOSEPH SYKES, Office Secretary.
WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.
WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room, provided with seats for one hundred readers, is closed at 10, P. M.

The Fine Arts Room, where ladies can use the Lower Hall catalogues, is closed at 8, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8, P. M. This hall now contains more than 29,000 volumes.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use, as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6, P. M., from October to March inclusive, and at 7, P. M., from April to September inclusive. This hall now contains more than 125,000 volumes.

Persons Admitted to Use the Library.

Any person above the age of fourteen years may use the Reading Room (which has now by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country), and, if above sixteen, may make use of the books within the building.

All inhabitants of Boston above the age of sixteen years; all Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city, though not residents; and all, even if under sixteen, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, and are still inhabitants of Boston, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All classes in this paragraph must have signed the application card and given satisfactory reference to two citizens. The registration takes place in the Fine Arts Room.

All members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city, as the Trustees may have especially permitted, are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

To the Clergy.

Our Library is particularly rich in every department of interest to the book-loving clergy. The Prince Library makes us strong in the old theology that was discussed among our ancestors in New England one or two hundred years ago. The Parker Library was the collection of a man curious in theological lore. Our general collection shows that one of its strongest departments is that of theology and the cognate subjects, including ecclesiastical history. Altogether, there is no branch of professional inquiry, so strong within our walls as this. In the Bates Hall, we have in this division of the general collection 9,400 volumes; in the Parker Library, 3,243 volumes; in the Prince, 872 volumes; in the Bowditch, 144 volumes, — making a total of nearly 14,000 volumes, or more than 11 per cent. of the 125,000 volumes now contained in that hall. Add to this what is placed in the Lower Hall, of a popular nature, and of the commoner kind of books, and we may point to a library of 15,000 volumes, of interest to students in this department. These figures place our library among the foremost in this respect in the country; that of the Union Theological Seminary of New York City, with its 28,000 volumes, taking the first rank, among those which are exclusively theological. We have not neglected any section of the subject. Bibles and commentaries in all languages; liturgical works; hymnology; systematic theology; homiletics; patristical and controversial divinity; ethnical and mythological beliefs; the collected works of famous theologians; ecclesiastical history of all countries and all orders of priesthood; missions; denominations; ecclesiastical biography, — have all received attention, and are well represented on the shelves. A few years since we bought the library of the Rev. Chester Field, a zealous collector of works relating to the Methodist church and we have probably more ample materials for the history of Methodism than can be found elsewhere.

Special Volumes and Collections.

It is our custom, after any significant event, to make a collection of all newspapers, magazines, prints, etc., relating to the same, and to bind them in volumes to be put on our shelves. In this way the record of the assassination of the late President Lincoln is preserved in fourteen folios; of the death of Mr. Everett in one volume; of the Portland fire in another; of the sentiment of the country as signified in the press of the nation on the morning following the election of President Grant, in two volumes; of Decoration day in May last, in one volume; of the Odd Fellows' semi-centenary in April last, in another; of the recent gale, in still another, etc.

In making up these volumes, we have been under obligations to the press of Boston, which has put at our disposal the mass of its exchanges.

We are now making collections for similar volumes, commemorative of the recent Humboldt anniversary, and we hope to make a pretty complete record of the celebration of the day, both in this country and in Europe. Prof. Agassiz will contribute the manuscript of his address, and Dr. Holmes and Mrs. Howe, autograph copies of their poems, delivered in connection with the celebration in this city.

We shall be pleased to receive, from any source, any paper, number of magazine, broadside, print, etc., illustrating that event, as well as every article in print which the recent Stowe-Byron controversy has brought out, as it is intended to make this the subject of another volume, and our foreign agents have had orders to gather everything abroad in any manner relating to it.

We are also intending to form a special collection of Franklíniana, as a memorial to the fame of that distinguished son of Boston, to embrace every edition of his works or of any one of them, every book written either wholly or in part about him, every magazine article, portrait, broadside or memento of any kind relating to him; and we will gratefully acknowledge any assistance that may be rendered us in making the collection complete.

The Public Library of Melbourne.

We have received a complete set of the catalogues of the library and museums of this fast-growing institution, together with a number of valuable volumes relating to Victoria, the whole accompanied by a letter detailing their experience in library matters, from Sir Redmond Barry, the Chancellor of the University of Melbourne, and one of the Trustees of the Library. We have reciprocated with copies of our catalogues and documents; and various literary and other institutions of Boston and the State have kindly forwarded to us contributions of their own, so that we have been enabled to send a large box to Melbourne.

Maps.

Since the last Bulletin, several hundred maps have been prepared for the shelves, and catalogued, but it has been possible to give only a small selection from the titles in this Bulletin. The maps are placed on the shelves in boxes resembling books. We shall be very glad to receive as gifts or to buy any old American maps.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED

DURING THE MONTHS OF

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST, AND SEPTEMBER, 1869.

N. B. — The books whose titles are embraced in this List are, for the most part, either recent American and foreign publications, or they are works both old and rare; but, in some cases, titles of books included in neither of these categories have been given, for particular reasons. Certain classes of works have been uniformly omitted, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogues of the Library; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. — A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — B. H. means Bates Hall; R. R., Reading Room. — In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Kühner, for example, is written Kuehner, and occurs, in alphabetical order before Kugler instead of after it. — Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Dickens, C. (J. H.)

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 The titles of works of fiction placed in the Lower Hall between June 1 and September 10 must be sought for in the Class List of English Prose Fiction, just issued; only those added since September 10 being given in the present Bulletin.

Increase of the Library.

About 3000 volumes and 2500 pamphlets have been added to the Library since the last Bulletin was issued, but it has not been found practicable to print any larger proportion of the titles than is given in the present number.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

Wanted.

Freemason's Monthly. Volumes I, II, IV, V; and No. 9 of Vol. XXI.—Commissioners of Central Park, New York City. 8th Report.—Massachusetts Medical Society. Medical papers. No. 1.

A Special Privilege

Is, in this Library, accorded to all persons, desiring any book not in its possession, of asking, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant will be notified of its reception. If duplicates are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions.

Finding Lists.

A new edition of the Finding List of English Prose Fiction (including Juvenile Fiction) has just been issued. The previous editions were lists of the books contained in alcoves IV, VII, XIV, and XVII, where works of fiction have mostly been placed. But as some works not fictitious are found in these alcoves, and as many which are fictitious are in other alcoves, particularly in those devoted to Collections (like Harper's Family Library, Constable's Miscellany, etc.), the present edition has been made strictly a Class List, and now contains the titles of all works of fiction in the Lower Hall. Besides its main use as a catalogue of the books of this description, it will be found valuable for reference on account of the information it contains in regard to the authorship of many anonymous and pseudonymous books.

The Finding List for Poetry, the Drama, Essays, and Collections, — which will also be a Class List, — is in an advanced state of preparation, and its publication will take place as soon as it can be read through the press with the proper care.

Pamphlets.

THE collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have some 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not.

The Tosti Engravings.

This collection, given to the Library by Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, has now arrived from Rome, and as soon as it can be put in order, such an exhibition of a part or all of it, as is practicable, will be made; and public notice will be given thereof.

The previous owner of this collection, which, at the time of its purchase, was esteemed the finest in Rome, was the Cardinal (Antonio) Tosti, who died March 23, 1856, aged 90. He resided for a long time at Aventine. In 1834 he was made treasurer of the pontifical government, a post which he continued to hold for ten years, when he resigned it into the hands of Gregory XVI. He is regarded as founder of the industrial and artistic school in the hospital of San Michele, of which institution he was director at the time of his death. He was buried in the church of St. Cecilia, Trastevere. He had long been a patron of art, and under his auspices Calamatta and Mercuri were sent to Paris, and there rose to the head of their profession as engravers. A considerable number of their productions, in proof before letter, appear in the present collection as gifts to their patron.

To City and Town Clerks in Massachusetts.

It is desirable that at least one public library in the State should preserve, as completely as possible, the documentary history of our cities and towns; and we would particularly request that all back issues of this kind may be sent to us, and that such documents may be regularly sent in the future.

The Ecumenical Council at Rome.

All interested in the doings of this Council, now sitting at Rome, will find the official record of its proceedings in the Civiltà Cattolica, received regularly by each post, and placed in the Reading Room.

The Bulletins are for Sale

In the Library at two cents each. The Finding Lists of the Lower Hall (five in number) are also for sale, at two cents each, and the Indexes to the books in the Bates Hall (in two volumes) at $2.00 each.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

EDWARD CAPEN, Librarian.
JOSEPH SYKES, Office Secretary.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.
WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays,—namely, Washington's birthday, Fast day, Independence day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas,—and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room for periodicals, provided with seats for one hundred readers, and having by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country, is closed at 10 o'clock, P. M.

The Fine Arts Room, where ladies can use the Lower Hall catalogues, is closed at 8 o'clock, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8 o'clock, P. M. This hall now contains nearly 30,000 volumes.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use, as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, inclusive, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., from April to September, inclusive. This hall now contains about 126,000 volumes.

Persons Admitted to use the Library.

I. To use periodicals or books in the building. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the building, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the building. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city; and all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the names of two citizens, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Fine Arts Room.

III. Members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city as the Trustees may have especially permitted are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

The Prince Library.

The completed catalogue of this Library, now a part of our collection, is nearly ready for delivery. It is a volume of the same form as the Bates Hall catalogues, and contains one hundred and seventy-five pages. The introduction gives a succinct history of the Library. The first part, embracing the titles of books printed in, or relating to America, has been considerably corrected since the tentative issue of this part in August 1833, and we are indebted to several scholars versed in early New England books for assistance rendered. The second part shows mainly the ancient theological library of the Old South Church, all the works in which were printed abroad, and a large number of them in Latin. The third part is a synoptical summary of the manuscripts of the collection, and what these precious memorials contain is now for the first time made completely manifest, each document being numbered and described.

Increased Use of the Library.

During the month of November, for the last three years the daily issues in the Bates Hall, Lower Hall, and Reading Room for periodicals have been respectively as follows: —

	B. H.	L. H.	R. R.
1867	104	514	338
1868	136	671	493
1869	202	689	648

On Saturday, November 20th, 351 books were issued in the Bates Hall, the largest number ever issued in one day from that hall. On the same day, 1,057 were given out from the Lower Hall (excluding those used in the Hall), making 1,408 issues for the day, by far the largest day's work ever done by us before at this season. The month of February is the one which always shows the largest use.

To Boston Authors.

We intend to begin the preparation of the second supplement of the Bates Hall catalogue early in the coming year, and it is extremely desirable that the new volume should contain all the productions of Boston writers — books or pamphlets — not enumerated in the two earlier volumes. We shall be glad to receive such, or to be told of the titles of any that we do not now possess.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates our local history or topography. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions. It is to be hoped our citizens will help us in our attempts to gather everything of this kind.

The Annual Report

Of the Library is now printed. It contains a large amount of statistics and detail, not only of this Library, but of others in this country and in Europe, which will be of interest to all engaged in the management of libraries.

Special Students

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received in the Library can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries to the Superintendent.

The Interleaved Catalogue.

It is intended to substitute a card catalogue for the present interleaved catalogue of the Bates Hall, as it will thus be possible to present a perfect alphabetical arrangement, which with the increase of titles soon becomes difficult or impossible in the interleaved form. The copying or transferring of the titles is a work of considerable care and magnitude, but it will be pressed forward as rapidly as possible. Accessions will hereafter be entered on the cards and not in the present catalogue.

Dorchester

Being now admitted to the privileges of this institution, it is to be hoped that friends of the Library will make known to residents in that locality our wish to have such new citizens enter their names in our register.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED

DURING THE MONTHS OF

OCTOBER AND NOVEMBER, 1869.

N. B. — The books whose titles are embraced in this List are, for the most part, either recent American and foreign publications, or they are works both old and rare; but, in some cases, titles of books included in neither of these categories have been given, for particular reasons. Certain classes of works have been uniformly omitted, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogues of the Library; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. — A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — R. R. means Reading Room. — In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Tröltsch, for example, is written Troeltsch, and occurs, in alphabetical order before Trognon instead of after it. — Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, About, E. (F. V.)

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

AND received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year. An invoice from Italy has just arrived.

To the Legal Profession.

THE Public Library has never attempted to compete with the excellent Social Law Library of this city in its peculiar province; and the nearness of that collection to the courts renders it much easier of access for practitioners. In international law, however, and in the theory and practice of government, we have aimed to make as perfect a collection as practicable. In the statutes and documents of the state, and in the ordinances and documents of the city, we aim to be as complete as possible. Our set of congressional documents is now esteemed the finest in existence, the foundation of it having been laid by the late Edward Everett, and it having been augmented by the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, and, in the very important era of the war of 1812, by the heirs of the late venerable Josiah Quincy. Our set of the British parliamentary publications is very extensive; and our series of the British, French and American patent specifications are presumed to be perfect. We have endeavored to get everything in all languages touching upon the recent civil war in its legal aspects. The Library is very rich in the literature of all applied arts and sciences, furnishing the means of investigation in every direction likely to be sought for by lawyers with a promiscuous clientage.

The Tosti Engravings.

THROUGH the continued kindness of Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, the glass to such of these engravings as were framed, — broken in transp ortation,— has been replaced, and such an exhibition as is practicable is now made of them in the Lower Halls and in the Bates Hall. A plan of a catalogue both of these and of the 125 volumes and several portfolios, constituting the rest of the collection, is now under consideration; but, with the press of work resting upon the cataloguing department of the Library it is not impossible that the publication of it will be for some time delayed.

A Special Privilege

IS, in this library, accorded to all persons, desiring any book not in its possession, of asking, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. We do not duplicate copies in the Bates Hall.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

THE collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have some 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not. With distant libraries, we have found the following method of exchange the most convenient: If they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their state, we will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

City Documents Wanted.

BOSTON School Committee Reports for 1854, 55, 56, 65, 66, 67, 68,— two copies of each.

Superintendent of Public Schools. Second Quarterly Report (1857); and 10th, 11th, 13th, and 14th of the Semi-annual Reports (1865, et seq.).

The Bulletins are for Sale

IN the Library at two cents each. The Finding Lists of the Lower Hall (five in number) are also for sale, at two cents each, and the Indexes to the books in the Bates Hall (in two volumes) at $2.00 each.

EDWARD CAPEN, Librarian.
WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays,—Feb. 22, Fast day, July 4, Thanksgiving and Christmas,—and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room for periodicals, provided with seats for one hundred readers, and having by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country, is closed at 10 o'clock, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8 o'clock, P. M. This hall now contains nearly 30,000 volumes.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use, as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, inclusive, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., from April to September, inclusive. This hall now contains about 127,000 volumes.

Printed Catalogues and Manuscript Bulletins are provided in each Hall. Additions to the books in the Bates Hall are also made accessible by means of a Public Card Catalogue.

Persons Admitted to use the Library.

I. To use periodicals or books in the building. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the building, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the building. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city; and all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the names of two citizens, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall.

III. Members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city as the Trustees may have especially permitted are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

The Prince Library.

The completed catalogue of this Library, now a part of our collection, is ready for delivery. It is a volume of the same form as the Bates Hall catalogues, and contains one hundred and seventy-five pages. The introduction gives a succinct history of the Library. The first part, embracing the titles of books printed in, or relating to, America, has been considerably corrected since its tentative issue in August, 1868, and we are indebted to several scholars versed in early New England books for assistance rendered. The second part shows mainly the ancient theological library of the Old South Church, all the works in which were printed abroad, and a large number of them in Latin. The third part is a synoptical summary of the manuscripts of the collection, and what these precious memorials contain is now for the first time made completely manifest, each document being numbered and described.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. We do not duplicate copies in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have some 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not. With distant libraries, we have found the following method of exchange the most convenient: If they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their State, we will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

To Boston Authors.

We have begun the preparation of the second supplement of the Bates Hall catalogue, and it is extremely desirable that the new volume should contain all the productions of Boston writers — books or pamphlets — not enumerated in the two earlier volumes. We shall be glad to receive such, or to be told of the titles of any that we do not now possess.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates our local history or topography. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions. It is to be hoped our citizens will help us in our attempts to gather everything of this kind.

Special Students

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received in the Library can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent.

The Interleaved Catalogue.

It is intended to substitute a card catalogue for the present interleaved catalogue of the Bates Hall, as it will thus be possible to present a perfect alphabetical arrangement, which with the increase of titles soon becomes difficult or impossible in the interleaved form. The copying or transferring of the titles is a work of considerable care and magnitude, but it will be pressed forward as rapidly as possible. Accessions will hereafter be entered on the cards and not in the present catalogue.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF

DECEMBER, 1869, AND JANUARY AND FEBRUARY, 1870.

N. B.—The books whose titles are embraced in this List are, for the most part, either recent American and foreign publications, or they are works both old and rare; but, in some cases, for particular reasons, titles of books have been given which are included in neither of these categories. Certain classes of works have been uniformly omitted, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogues of the Library; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall.—A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading.—R. R. means Reading Room.—In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue. Initials inclosed within marks of parentheses stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Bartsch, F. (J. A.) von.—8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the sheet as shown by the signatures, and do not always indicate the size or shape of the bound volume. The epithets "large," "small," or the like, are sometimes added for the sake of greater precision.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

ANNALEN der Physik. Herausgegeben von Gilbert [und Poggendorff]. Leipzig, 1799–1869. 215 v. 8° *3918.1

Note. — This work is a continuation of Gren's Journal der Physik (8 v., 1793–94) and Neues Journal der Physik (4 v., 1795–97). The volumes are numbered continuously from 1 to 212, but there have been various series, each numbered separately, as well as changes of editorship, title, etc., as is shown below.

Whole no.	Title.	Serial no.
1–30	Annalen der Physik, hrsg. v. Gilbert	1–30
31–60	— Same. Neue Folge, " " "	1–30
61–76	Annalen der Physik u. Physikalischen Chemie, hrsg. v. Gilbert	1–16
77–106	Annalen der Physik und Chemie, hrsg. v. Poggendorff	1–30
107–136	— Same. 2te Reihe (1–30)	31–60
137–166	— Same. 3te Reihe (1–30)	61–90
167–196	— Same. 4te Reihe (1–30)	91–120
197–212	— Same. 5te Reihe (1–16)	121–136

There are four supplementary volumes. The 1st (published in 1836) is the 106th volume of the whole work, and the 30th of Poggendorff's first series; the 2d (1848) follows vol. 148 (72 of Poggendorff), and is numbered 148a; the 3d (1853) follows vol. 161 (87 of Poggendorff), and is numbered 163a; the 4th (1854) follows vol. 166 (90 of Poggendorff), and is numbered 166a.

THE TOSTI ENGRAVINGS.

NOTE.—The following list covers that portion of the collection of engravings made by the late Cardinal Tosti, of Rome and, given to this Library by Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, which is in bound volumes, and it includes nearly 5,100 prints. There are about twelve hundred other prints, more than one-half of which are framed. These will all be catalogued as soon as practicable, and their titles inserted in a subsequent Bulletin. Among the bound volumes are five not enumerated below, which, being duplicates, have been assigned to their proper places in the general collection. A map of Rome has also been similarly assigned.

The entries are mostly under the names of the engravers, but works of a painter, when engraved by several artists, are put under the name of the painter.

Our Art Department, and its Literature.

THE present Bulletin gives the public a partial knowledge of the extent and character of the collection of engravings recently added to the Library. Its strength lies in the Italian school; and its groupings are rather indicative of the taste of its late owner than suggestive of any systematic growth, its development having doubtless been controlled in some degree by his opportunities. As patron of the school of San Michele in Rome, he stood in intimate relations with two of its scholars, who gained eminence in the art of engraving, Mercuri and Calamatta, and he doubtless had their assistance in gathering, whence he could, specimens of their art, while they, furthermore, did not leave him without the earliest impressions of their numerous works. When the titles of that portion of the collection which is in frames, is given in a subsequent Bulletin, this fact will appear more prominently than in the present list. A distinctive feature of the collection is beyond doubt its portraits, which are mostly framed. A list of these is intended for the next Bulletin. Edelinck, Drevet, Nanteuil, and Schmidt are here strongly represented. In a still subsequent Bulletin, it is hoped to catalogue the rest of the collection, framed and unframed. The earlier Italian masters will not be found to be well represented. There are no Marc Antonios, except a few of his fac-similes of Dürer. Of the latter's wood-cuts there are between twenty and thirty, large and small. There is little or nothing of his cotemporaries or immediate successors. The English school is but slightly represented; and etchings, beside a volume of Salvator Rosa's and a few of Rembrandt's, are not numerous. The modern French school from Audran to Lelli is well set forth.

An attempt has been made to supplement this collection very fully with general lexicons of art and monographs on particular artists, and the latest additions to our already good selection will be found in the main list of this Bulletin.

We have been aiming at making our Architectural department the best in the city, as it perhaps now is. In addition to text-books and descriptive works in general and in details, there are not a few special monographs on celebrated buildings, which have an historical as well as artistic interest.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

AND received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year. An invoice from Italy is embraced in the present Bulletin.

Newspapers.

WE have now provided a separate room for the storage of our collection of newspapers, and we would gladly receive from friends of the Library files or bound volumes. If any one, so disposed to favor us, will communicate with the Superintendent, an exact statement can be rendered of the state of any particular set.

Medical Pamphlets.

THERE has been added to the Library a collection of 105 volumes containing about 800 pamphlets (mostly French, but with some in the Italian, English, and German languages), relating to a great variety of subjects connected with the theory and practice of medicine. These have all been catalogued and placed upon the shelves; and, although it has not been deemed advisable to print their titles in the Bulletin, their contents can be ascertained or the volumes consulted at the Library.

Engraved Portraits.

PORTFOLIOS and scrap-books have been prepared for the preservation of engraved portraits, and any contribution of this kind will be gladly accepted. Particular attention will be paid to the gathering of likenesses of Bostonians.

The Bulletins are for Sale

IN the Library at two cents each. The Indexes to the books in the Bates Hall (in two volumes) are also for sale at $2. each, and the Catalogue of the Prince Library (just issued) at $1.00.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.

EDWARD CAPEN, Keeper of Lower Halls. JOSEPH SYKES, Keeper of Bates Hall.

WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, — Washington's birth-day, Fast day, Independence day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, — and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room for periodicals, provided with seats for one hundred readers, and having by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country, is closed at 10 o'clock, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8 o'clock, P. M. This hall now contains 30,000 volumes. Books may be returned after 8.30 A. M., but the delivery does not begin till 9 o'clock. Persons leaving applications between those hours will find the books ready for delivery at a later hour.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use, as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, inclusive, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., from April to September, inclusive. This hall now contains 130,000 volumes.

Persons Admitted to use the Library.

I. To use periodicals or books in the building. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the building, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the building. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city; and all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the name of a citizen, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall.

III. Members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city as the Trustees may have especially permitted, are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

Daily Bulletin.

Instead of entering the new accessions to each Hall in a public record-book, we have adopted the more convenient plan of posting the titles on bulletin-boards. In the Lower Hall, all new accessions, except duplicates, are now thus posted. In the Bates Hall are given the titles of American and English books published within one year, and of foreign books published within three years. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic, are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

Public Card Catalogue.

There has been substituted a Public Card Catalogue for the Interleaved Catalogue of the Bates Hall, as by this means it is possible to present a perfect alphabetical arrangement, which with the increase of titles soon becomes difficult or impossible in the interleaved form. Accessions will hereafter be entered on the cards, but without cross-references, which may be examined, on application, in the main Card Catalogue.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. We do not duplicate copies in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege, will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

Special Students

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received in the Library, can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes, and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have some 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not. With distant libraries, we have found the following method of exchange the most convenient: If they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their State, we will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

To Boston Authors.

We have begun the preparation of the second supplement of the Bates Hall Catalogue, and it is extremely desirable that the new volume should contain all the productions of Boston writers — books or pamphlets — not enumerated in the two earlier volumes. We shall be glad to receive such, or to be told of the titles of any that we do not now possess.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates our local history or topography. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions. It is to be hoped our citizens will help us in our attempts to gather everything of this kind.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF

MARCH, APRIL, AND MAY, 1870.

N. B.— The books whose titles are embraced in this List are, for the most part, either recent American and foreign publications, or they are works both old and rare; but, in some cases, for particular reasons, titles of books have been given which are included in neither of these categories. Certain classes of works have been uniformly omitted, such as continuations of periodicals, the earlier volumes of which are given in the printed Catalogues of the Library; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. — A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — R. R. means Reading Room. — In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue. Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Davanne, (L.) A. — 8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the sheet as shown by the signatures, and do not always indicate the size or shape of the bound volume. The epithets "large," "small," and the like, are sometimes added for the sake of greater precision.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

The Public Library.

How Books are Bought.—Some Account of the Workings of the Institution.

[From the Boston Post, of April 7, 1870]

IT is a common thing in public libraries to have a "proposition book," in which frequenters wishing a book the library does not possess, may make a suggestion, which in due time is voted upon by a committee after a careful scrutiny of the state of the treasury; and long after the need is gone by the applicant may find, if he chances to inquire, that it has been bought or not, as the case may be. They try to do things more liberally — thanks to the City Council, which grants most of the money — and more promptly at the Boston Public Library; and it may interest some of our readers to know the amount of work entailed upon the Library by a request which it may take a reader half a minute to make, and in making which he may feel that whether it be for a work worth much or little, any reasonable desire will be met at once, so far as issuing the order is concerned, and with as great alacrity as practicable on the part of the agencies of the Library to whom the order may go. When the history of one of these recommendations is traced from the time it is handed to the desk-attendant until the book is in the keeping of the asker, there is not a little necessary interposition of delay and labor, which needs to be comprehended before it is known what reasonable promptness in such matters means. A printed form is furnished for such use, in which are spaces designated for the title, author, size, date and place of publication, — all very necessary to be known to insure the right book's coming, and usually scarcely filled in at all by the applicant, while what is given is not infrequently very erroneously or vaguely expressed. It is not, of course, to be expected that an ordinary user of books will understand the necessity of all this information; nor indeed that he will comprehend the labor — which is great — or the perplexity — which is sore — entailed on the Library officials. Somebody will ask, for instance, for a "Handbook of Metallurgy," without any other information. There are, perhaps, eight or ten such books published in England or America, but there is nothing to tell whose Handbook is meant. There are perhaps two or three already in the Library, but the recommender had either carelessly examined the catalogues or had spared himself the trouble. There is nothing to be done but to send him word that the Library already possesses such and such "Handbooks," and that there are still such and such others, which will be ordered if he will kindly designate the one he wants. It then perhaps dawns upon his mind, that in such a request he had not done a very wise thing, and so he screens himself from further scrutiny by letting the matter drop, having cost a certain amount of time and labor to the Library, which would otherwise have been directed in channels of good to a greater number of people.

There came in once at the Library, an application for a book called "Dane Swift," no further information being given. Was it a life of St. Patrick's Dean, or some one of his works, of each of which the Library already possessed an ample number of copies? It was probably a very hasty expression of a very confused notion in somebody's head, and no one would probably have wondered so much as himself at the dulness of the Library officers in not knowing what was meant. "He of course did not know, but it was their business to know." Of course it is, and so the officers reason, and hours are spent weekly on just such enigmas; and if a solution is not reached always satisfactory to the applicant, it is because the officers can neither claim to be omniscient nor prescient. This morning, perhaps, a dozen or twenty of these slips of recommendations have accumulated at the desk, and they are sent to the cataloguing department to be examined. They are first gone through with to ascertain what is really meant in each case, and this involves long examinations in various past and current bibliographical records, of which the askers in most cases have no conception. Authors' names are spelled wrong or written illegibly, and must be hunted for under one form or another, until a likely solution is reached. An American book is given as published in London, or the reverse. Most are given with no place of publication; some with no author. In some cases no such book has ever been printed, and the applicant has likely enough mistaken a reference to a magazine article for a book, or the like. Now and then an application will prove utterly unintelligible. In this examination, a memorandum will be made on the slip of the cost of the book, if it can be found.

The next process is to examine the catalogues and see if the Library does not already have the books, which is often the case, or still oftener it has some other edition of the work, and perhaps a later one than the one asked for. These facts are noted on the slips. Then the file of slips showing books already ordered is examined to see if an order for the same book has not already gone forward. If so, the fact is noted, with the date of ordering, on the proper slip. The slips are now ready for adjudication, and are laid before the proper officer. On these slips showing that the Library already has the book he writes, "Notify"; or, in case of different editions, he may write, "Notify, and ask if anything further is wanted"; in rare instances he may write, for sufficient reasons, "Don't order." On most he writes "Order." In the utterly unintelligible cases he may write, "Ask for more explicit request." The slips are now sent to the ordering clerk, who writes the notes to the applicants in accordance with the pencilled directions. In the case of those to be ordered, they are now assorted into four piles, one for Boston, one for London, one for Paris, one for Leipsic, and occasionally there may be an Italian order for Florence, the Library having agents in all these places. A slip is now made for each book to be ordered, showing the name and address of the applicant, the author and title of the book, of whom it is ordered, and when. From these slips entries are made chronologically in the Register of Recommendations; and the four orders are then made out on a printed form, when the slips are next put in their proper alphabetical places in the file of "books ordered," as a safeguard against ordering the same book a second time. The written order is again submitted to the adjudicating officer, who goes through the list again for any new suggestion or emendation that may occur to him; for there is a possibility that some of the enigmas may appear clear on a reconsideration. The orders are now signed, a press copy taken, and despatched by mail.

The order in the hands of the Library agents, they proceed to gather the books, which, in the case of those in print, is comparatively an easy matter; but it involves not a little correspondence on their part to different book centres to find such as are out of print and scarce; and sometimes the order must stand for months and even years, before it can be filled. Again, the order may have limited the price, and it may be that a copy within that limit or meeting the required condition, cannot be found as easily as one beyond such limit, or not exactly of the prescribed condition. So, probably, the books named on the four orders despatched to-day will come to the Library at intervals, varying from two hours to many months, or perhaps not at all, and in their places will come messages stating reasons why they cannot be found, or that no such book was ever published,— for sometimes the agents are left to the chance of solving enigmas that the Library officers cannot,— and the applicants receive this information through the mail.

With the second or third fortnightly box from London, after the transmission of the order for that city, the books named therein will begin to arrive, and oath must be taken that they are solely for the use of the Library, in order to pass them without duty at the Custom House. They reach the Library with an invoice and are checked off on it, as unpacked. A certain part will be found to be new publications, sent on the agent's discretion under a general order, or continuations of series, sent because the preceding volumes had been sent. The rest of the invoice ought to have a slip corresponding to each book, and to be found in the file of "Books ordered," where are kept not only those ordered on "recommendation," but such as the Superintendent may have specifically ordered. The slip is taken from the file and put in the book, and shows why it was ordered, and what action needs to be taken. The invoice is now gone through with, the books assigned, by noting against the title of each on the invoice the Hall in which it is to be placed, and the fund to which it is to be charged. A slip is now made out with a brief title for each book, and the fund copied on this. The slips are then sent to have the title entered in the "Accessions Catalogue," where the book acquires an accession number, which clings to it ever after, and serves as its identification. These numbers, with the date, are put on the slips as entered, and the slips are then returned. Meanwhile, each volume has been collated to see if it is perfect, and imperfect ones — not unfrequently occurring — are thrown out, the collator attaching her initials to the book in a given place. When needed, the leaves are cut. An embossed stamp is now put on the title, and on the first page of the text of each volume. A book-plate is next selected, corresponding to the fund on the accession slip, — in case of donations or exchanges, there are still other book-plates, — and this is pasted on the inside of the front cover, and printed abbreviated regulations on the inside of the rear cover. The accession number is copied on the book-plate from the slip, and the date entered on the same. The accession number is also copied, together with the fund and date, on the reverse of the title-page, for preservation, if, in rebinding at any time, the present covers of the books should be discarded, or the cover be lost by service.

The books are next sent to the cataloguer for the Bates Hall or the Lower Hall, according as they have been assigned. This work is done on cards, for convenience in alphabetical insertion in the main manuscript catalogue. The main entry on one card gives the full title, imprint, etc., or with but slight condensation. Other cards are filled out for the cross-references under subjects. Sometimes a volume will take five or six cards. A slip is also made with an abridged title. This is sometimes plain work, and at other times tedious and perplexing, as in the case of a book — perhaps in a foreign tongue — whose author has to be ascertained, or whose title does not convey an idea of the scope of the book, which has to be more or less examined before deciding upon the cross-references. Not unlikely, the needful investigation to catalogue intelligently a single volume may take hours.

The cards and slips are now put in the book, when it goes to the reviser, who verifies the cataloguer's work and makes the needful changes that one mind may often make in check upon another in such critical work; and in enigmatical cases further investigation may be made, and the cataloguer's results confirmed or changed. A mark is put upon such slips as are needed to be copied for printing in the next Bulletin.

The book with its cards and slip now goes to the Custodian of the Shelves, who assigns it to its proper place, marking on the slip the figures which designate that place, and noting, when needed, the affixing of stars to the book, as showing that certain formalities are required to take it from the building. The numbers are now copied from the slip on the book-plate, and on each of the cards. The slip is next used in entering a brief title opposite the corresponding number in the shelf-lists, which lists are a sort of stock-book of the Library, needed in conducting the periodic examination, and constantly referred to in assigning books to places, as showing books which belong to the shelves, though in circulation. The slip is then inserted in its proper place in the slip catalogue to be used in printing the general catalogue of the Library. The cards are inserted in their proper alphabetical places, in the main or card catalogue. The book, meanwhile, has gone to have a shelf-label attached to its back, and from thence every morning the books thus prepared with labels the day before — including many which have required to have labels replaced — are taken to their assigned places on the shelves. In the Lower Hall, the books are covered first, and the shelf number is then written on the back.

While the book is thus getting to its final place, the original order-slips, upon which the shelf numbers have been written, are used in writing the notifications which are sent to such persons as had recommended any of them, stating that the book has been received, and "located" so and so, and will be detained five days, subject to the presentation of their Library card for it under the rules; and few persons of those who answer such notices are aware of the meandering processes that every well-regulated library finds needful to follow out between the ordering and the making ready of a book for use. A single volume could doubtless go through these stages in a short time; but when there are tens and sometimes hundreds to be pushed along at the same time, it can be seen that the average detention will be much greater than if one volume should be completely pushed through before another is taken on.

But the work is not done yet. The slips are next used in entering the titles in the Manuscript Bulletin, which shows, at short intervals, the books made accessible to the public. They are again used in making another card of smaller size than the main card, and this card is inserted in its proper alphabetical place in the "Public Card Catalogue," which is what the public have access to for making known to themselves whatever the Bates Hall may contain supplemental to the two large printed catalogues. Its single alphabetical arrangement is more convenient of reference than the files of the printed Bulletins, each of which would have to be consulted; besides, it is not deemed desirable to print in these Bulletins a record of all accessions to the Library.

To Teachers.

The teachers of Boston and vicinity should be well aware of the great advantages that this Library offers in almost every field of investigation, and of the desire we feel to have them avail themselves of the use of its books, which are procured as promptly as possible, in order to keep our collection abreast of the latest advances in science and literature. If by any chance a book is needed which we do not possess, we beg to call attention to the paragraph on the second page of this Bulletin, headed, "Books recommended." Our shelves will be found to be well supplied with treatises on the theory of education in all its departments; and we are making special efforts to preserve the history of all educational movements in the publications and reports of bodies having that aim, and in the journals of public and private instruction; and we shall feel greatly obliged by receiving the aid and suggestions of any teacher in relation to this matter. Our main Catalogues are a vast repository of bibliographical knowledge in almost every direction in which general or special teachers are called upon to make investigations.

East Boston Branch.

The action of the City Council in voting the necessary funds has rendered it possible for the Library to try the experiment of a Branch in East Boston, upon somewhat the same plan that has made the branch system so satisfactory in its working in connection with the free public libraries in the chief cities of England. East Boston has been selected as the point most likely to test the operation of the plan, because of the want of facilities which its inhabitants now possess for using the Library. At present the proportion of users of the main Library who live in East Boston is as one in twenty-six of its population, while Roxbury shows one in fourteen, South Boston one in sixteen, and the City proper, one in eight. Much preparatory work will have to be done before the opening of a suitable collection in East Boston, in gathering the books, and in arranging and printing the necessary Catalogue; but our East Boston friends may like to know that the work is begun, and that it will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Now that the Catalogue is forming, we should be very glad of gifts of books from any one interested in seeing fit library facilities afforded to that portion of the city.

Commemorative Volumes.

We are gathering materials — pamphlets, broadsides, prints, newspapers, etc. — to make volumes commemorative of the recent "Memorial Day," and of the late Charles Dickens, hoping to secure much of what appears in testimony of the loss sustained by his death. Our friends can assist us.

The Bulletins are for Sale

In the Library, at two cents each. The Indexes to the books in the Bates Hall (in two volumes), are also for sale at $2.00 each, and the Catalogue of the Prince Library at $1.00.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.

EDWARD CAPEN, Keeper of Lower Halls. JOSEPH SYKES, Keeper of Bates Hall.

WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

The Library Opens at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, — Washington's birth-day, Fast day, Independence day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, — and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room for periodicals, provided with seats for one hundred readers, and having by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country, is closed at 10 o'clock, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8 o'clock, P. M. This hall now contains 31,000 volumes. Books may be returned after 8.30 A. M., but the delivery does not begin till 9 o'clock. Persons leaving applications between those hours will find the books ready for delivery at a later hour.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use, as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, inclusive, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., from April to September, inclusive. This hall now contains 133,000 volumes.

Persons Admitted to use the Library.

I. To use periodicals or books in the building. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the building, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the building. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city; all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools; and all pupils attending the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the name of a citizen, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall.

III. Members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city as the Trustees may have especially permitted, are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be immediately purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. We do not duplicate copies in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege, will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

Special Students,

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received in the Library, can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes, and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have some 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not. With distant libraries, we have found the following method of exchange the most convenient: if they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their state, we will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

To Boston Authors.

We have begun the preparation of the Second Supplement of the Bates Hall Catalogue, and it is extremely desirable that the new volume should contain all the productions of Boston writers — books or pamphlets — not enumerated in the two earlier volumes. We shall be glad to receive such, or to be told of the titles of any that we do not now possess.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates our local history or topography. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions. It is to be hoped our citizens will help us in our attempts to gather everything of this kind.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year. The war in Europe having interrupted all communication with Paris, no books or periodicals will be received as long as the siege of that city lasts; and invoices from Leipsic may possibly be intercepted. It is not improbable that the publication of some French journals may be suspended or discontinued.

Engraved Portraits.

Portfolios and scrap-books have been prepared for the preservation of engraved portraits, and any contributions of this kind will be gladly accepted. Particular attention will be paid to the gathering of likenesses of Bostonians.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING THE MONTHS OF

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST, AND SEPTEMBER, 1870.

N. B. — The books whose titles are embraced in this List are, for the most part, either recent American and foreign publications, or they are works both old and rare; but, in some cases, for particular reasons, titles of books have been given which are included in neither of these categories. Certain classes of works have been omitted, such as continuations of periodicals and serials, the earlier parts of which are given in the printed Catalogues of the Library; also, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate copies of the same edition of a book, and the like.

☞ Books on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those on shelves below 2110 are in the Lower Hall. — A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — R. R. means Reading Room. — In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue. — Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Berlioz, (L.) H. — When the date of publication of a book does not appear on the title page, and could not be ascertained from any other source, the year in which the book was copyrighted (if stated) is given within brackets, with the italic abbreviation "cop." prefixed. — 8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the sheet as shown by the signatures, and do not always indicate the size or shape of the bound volume. The epithets "large," "small," and the like, are sometimes added for the sake of greater precision.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

THE TOSTI ENGRAVINGS.

NOTE.—Bulletin No. 13 contained a List of engravings—nearly 5,100 in number—comprised in that portion of the collection made by the late Cardinal Tosti, of Rome, and given to this Library by Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, which is in bound volumes. With the exception of titles under Santi (or Sanzio), Raffaello, da Urbino, the following List contains only cross-references to the titles printed in that Bulletin. No. 16 will probably include a List of the Portraits belonging to the collection.

Annual Report and Catalogues.

Since the issue of the last Bulletin, the Eighteenth Annual Report of the Trustees has been printed, with statistics of the increase and use of the Library, covering an interval of the nine months previous to the beginning of the newly-established Library year, May 1st. The figures given in it show the still-increasing importance of an institution which at this time possesses about 170,000 volumes.

A new Class List of the Lower Hall, embracing Poetry, the Drama, Rhetoric, Elocution, Collections (published as such), Periodicals, and the large number of books too miscellaneous to be otherwise classed, was published on the 1st of September.

A useful List of all the Periodicals Currently Received in the Library, and placed both in the Reading Room and on the shelves of the General Collection, has likewise been issued, comprising nearly 750 titles. It includes Reviews, Magazines, Journals, etc., and the issues — except mere reports — of learned societies and other bodies; but it does not, as a rule, include public documents, or almanacs, or books published serially, or the like. Appended to it is a list of the Books of Reference kept in the Reading Room, and at the Desk in the Bates Hall, including 150 titles, and about 460 volumes, not counting duplicates, of which there are many.

The Franco-Prussian War.

We are endeavoring through our foreign agencies to secure the best of the pamphlet discussions of this war, as well as the most important of the books. We have already formed a considerable collection of American, English, French, and German maps of the seat of war. We hope to be assisted by friends of the Library.

Indicator Finding List.

A manuscript List of the numbers represented on the Indicator and of the titles of the books corresponding to these numbers has been prepared as subsidiary to the Class List for Fiction, and will be found on the shelf in front of the Indicator.

As the pins of the Indicator always have the ends bearing black figures on a white ground turned outwards when the books are on the shelf, this List will furnish the means of readily ascertaining what books are at any time in the alcoves represented by the Indicator. This information cannot easily be derived from the Class List, which is arranged alphabetically under authors and titles, and not numerically according to the order of the books on the shelves. Hence, to learn whether a given work of fiction is on the shelf, find its title and number in the Class List, and then consult the Indicator. But to learn the title of a book answering to any number on the Indicator, consult only the Indicator Finding List.

Public Card Catalogue for the Lower Hall.

A Card Catalogue, containing only the titles of works (not anonymous) which have been added to the Lower Hall since the issue of the various Finding Lists, has been placed at the Clerk's Desk in the Distributing Room. In the printed Bulletins, such works are entered only under the names of their authors. These printed entries have been cut out and inserted in alphabetical order in a book which is in the custody of the Clerk, and which can be consulted on application to him. This book, therefore, and the Card Catalogue, taken together, show all the additions, both under author and title, which have been made to the Lower Library since the publication of the several Finding Lists.

The Prince Library.

A volume containing two tracts — the titles of which are given below — has been returned to this collection. The book is in the original binding, bears Prince's autograph, and the plate of the "South Church Library." It was discovered among some old books received at the New Bedford Public Library, and these marks of ownership having been brought by the Librarian to the notice of the Trustees of that institution, they promptly directed its transfer to the Prince Library. It is to be hoped that the same courtesy and sense of right will cause the restoration by others of all books properly belonging to this Library, many of which must now be in private hands.

The tracts are —

ALTING, J. Synopsis institutionum Chaldæarum et Syrarum. Francofurti ad Moenum, 1717. pp. (4), 122. sm. 8°. 79a.30

OTHO, G. Synopsis institutionum Samaritanarum, Rabbinicarum, Arabicarum, Æthiopicarum et Persicarum. Editio secunda. Francofurti ad Moenum, 1717. pp. (16), 32, 32, [120]. sm. 8° 79a.30

Increased Use of the Library.

The increase in the use made of the Bates Hall collection during the last five years has been very marked, as is shown by the following figures: Between May 1st and September 30th, there were 5733 issues in 1866; 7513 in 1867; 10,869 in 1868; 17,355 in 1869, and 20,348 in 1870. The increased use of the Reading Room for periodicals is shown for the month of September by 4833 readers in 1866; 5421 in 1867; 6681 in 1868; 9239 in 1869, and 14,389 in 1870. In the Lower Hall, during September in 1867 there were 6753 issues; for the same month, 1868, 11,274 issues; 1869, 13,110 issues, and 1870, 16,402 issues, and the large number of persons here indicated have been supplied during the month last past at an average detention of not over five minutes each. — Saturday Evening Gazette, October 15th.

The Bulletins are for Sale

Rn the Library, at two cents each. The List of Periodicals currently received is also for sale at five cents. The Supplementary Index to the books in the Bates Hall (issued in 1866) is for sale at $2 00, and the Catalogue of the Prince Library at $1.00. The main Index of the Bates Hall (issued in 1861) is out of print, but a limited number of copies of both the Index and Supplement circulate like other books. The Class or Finding Lists for English Prose Fiction, and for Poetry, the Drama, Collected Works, etc., are for sale, in the Lower Delivery Room, at ten cents each; the Finding List for Biography and Travels at five cents; and that for Works in Foreign Languages at two cents. The Finding Lists for the Sciences, Arts, and Professions, and for History and Politics are out of print; but new editions will be issued as soon as possible.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.

EDWARD CAPEN, Keeper of Lower Halls. JOSEPH SYKES, Keeper of Bates Hall.

WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

MISS CLARA B. POND, Librarian of East Boston Branch.

The Libraries Open at 9 o'clock, A. M.,

Every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, — Washington's birth-day, Fast day, Independence day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, — and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room for periodicals, provided with seats for one hundred readers, and having by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country, is closed at 10 o'clock, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8 o'clock, P. M. This hall now contains 32,000 volumes. Books may be returned after 8.30 A. M., but the delivery does not begin till 9 o'clock. Persons leaving applications between those hours will find the books ready for delivery at a later hour.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use, as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, inclusive, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., from April to September, inclusive. This hall now contains 135,000 volumes.

The Reading Room for periodicals of the East Boston Branch closes at 10 o'clock, P. M.

Persons Admitted to use the Library.

I. To use periodicals or books in the building. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the building, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the building. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city; all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools; and all pupils attending the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the name of a citizen, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall.

III. Non-residents. Non-resident members of educational institutions in the city and other non-residents (when specially permitted, in consideration of the advancement of the public interests), may use the Libraries, in accordance with the conditions imposed in each case by the Trustees.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year. The war in Europe having interrupted all communication with Paris, no books or periodicals will be received as long as the siege of that city lasts; and invoices from Leipsic may possibly be intercepted. It is not improbable that the publication of some French journals may be suspended or discontinued. An invoice from Italy is now due.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided our records show a circulation of the present copies to warrant such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. We do not duplicate copies in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege, will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

Special Students,

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received in the Library, can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes, and catalogued. It is our intention in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These we shall put on the shelves in boxes, and substitute for the box the bound volume, when the needful numbers are procured. We renew our solicitations for lots of pamphlets, which we will willingly send for, if informed that they are ready for us. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets we want, and the others will avail us in exchanges. We have 30,000 (more or less) duplicate pamphlets, all arranged, and are ready to exchange them for others that we have not. With distant libraries, we have found the following method of exchange the most convenient: if they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their state, or in a given locality, we will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts, or in some other locality. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

To Boston Authors.

We have begun the preparation of the Second Supplement of the Bates Hall Catalogue, and it is extremely desirable that the new volume should contain all the productions of Boston writers — books or pamphlets — not enumerated in the two earlier volumes. We shall be glad to receive such, or to be told of the titles of any that we do not now possess.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates our local history or topography. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions. It is to be hoped our citizens will help us in our attempts to gather everything of this kind.

Engraved Portraits.

Portfolios and scrap-books have been prepared for the preservation of engraved portraits, and any contributions of this kind will be gladly accepted. Particular attention will be paid to the gathering of likenesses of Bostonians.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING OCTOBER, NOVEMBER, AND DECEMBER, 1870.

N. B.—From this List are omitted continuations of periodicals and of certain serials, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate books, many pamphlets, and the like.

☞ Shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those below 2110 are in the Lower Hall.—A single dash stands for the preceding heading; a subsequent dash for a subordinate heading.—R. R. means Reading Room; N. R., Newspaper Room.—In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; as, Goethe, J. W. von.—Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names not usually retained; as, Foerster, E. (J.)—When the date of publication of a book could not be ascertained, the year in which it was copyrighted (if stated) is given within brackets, with "cop." prefixed.—8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the printed sheet as shown by the signatures; but the epithets "large," "small," and "oblong," or the like, are sometimes added to give a better idea of the size or shape of the bound volume.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

The Reading Room for Periodicals was opened to the public, and the registration of applicants for cards to use the Library, began November 28, 1870. Up to this date (Jan. 16th) 807 names have been enrolled. The delivery of books is to begin as soon as the Catalogue can be printed. The number of volumes embraced in it will be not much short of 6,000.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.

EDWARD CAPEN, Keeper of Lower Halls. JOSEPH SYKES, Keeper of Bates Hall.

WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

MISS CLARA B. POND, Librarian of East Boston Branch.

Days and Hours, etc.

All departments are open every secular day except the five legal holidays, — Feb. 22, Fast day, July 4, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, — and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

Bates Hall, 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. in winter, and to 7 P. M. in summer.

Lower Hall, 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Open for receiving books at 8.30 A. M.

Central Reading Room, 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. Seats for one hundred readers.

East Boston Branch, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Book delivery ceases at 8 P. M.

Extent of the Collections. The Bates Hall has about 137,000 volumes; the Lower Hall, 33,000 volumes; the East Boston Branch, 5,700 volumes, — a total of more than 175,000 volumes.

The Central Reading Room has upwards of 360 different periodicals; the East Boston Branch Reading Room has 29.

Persons Admitted to use the Libraries.

I. To use periodicals or books in the buildings. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the buildings, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the buildings. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular occupation in the city; all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools; and all pupils attending the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the name of a citizen, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall of the Central Library, and at the East Boston Branch.

III. Non-residents. Non-resident members of educational institutions in the city and other non-residents (when specially permitted, in consideration of the advancement of the public interests), may use the Libraries, in accordance with the conditions imposed in each case by the Trustees.

Classed Bulletins.

In Bulletins 13 to 16 inclusive, a general classification of titles was adopted; but, in the present Bulletin, a return to a simple alphabetical arrangement is made, as the expressions in favor of the classed system have not been sufficiently pronounced or numerous to establish its advantages.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year. The troubles in France are at present affecting the regular receipt of books from Paris. It is not improbable that the publication of some French journals may be suspended or discontinued. An invoice from Italy has lately been received, and is included in the present Bulletin.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided the circulation of the present copies warrants such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. Copies are not duplicated in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege, will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

Special Students,

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received at the Library, can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes, and catalogued. It is intended in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These will be put on the shelves in boxes, and for the box the bound volume will be substituted, when the needful numbers are procured. Solicitations are renewed for lots of pamphlets, which will be sent for, on receiving information that they are ready. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets wanted, and the others will avail in exchanges. The number of duplicate pamphlets is now about 30,000, all arranged, and ready to be exchanged for others not belonging to the Library. With distant libraries, the following method of exchange has been found the most convenient: if they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their state, or in a given locality, this Library will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts, or in some other locality. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates the history or topography of the city. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions; and it is to be hoped that friends of the Library will assist in making the collection complete.

Engraved Portraits.

Portfolios and scrap-books have been prepared for the preservation of engraved portraits, and any contributions of this kind will be gladly accepted. Particular attention will be paid to the gathering of likenesses of Bostonians.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING JANUARY, FEBRUARY, AND MARCH, 1871.

N. B.—From this List are omitted continuations of periodicals and of certain serials, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate books, many pamphlets, and the like.

☞ Shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those below 2110 are in the Lower Hall.—A single dash stands for the preceding heading; a subsequent dash for a subordinate heading.—R. R. means Reading Room; N. R., Newspaper Room.—In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; as, Goethe, J. W. von.—Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names not usually retained: as, Ampère, J. J. (A.)—When the date of publication of a book could not be ascertained, the year in which it was copyrighted (if stated) is given within brackets, with "cop." prefixed.—8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the printed sheet as shown by the signatures; but the epithets "large," "small," and "oblong," or the like, are sometimes added to give a better idea of the size or shape of the bound volume.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

☞ The letters E. B., in full-face type, prefixed to the shelf number, indicate an addition to the East Boston Branch Library.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor if they will kindly communicate to he Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

GEORGE TICKNOR'S BEQUEST.

MR. GEORGE TICKNOR, one of the original Trustees of this Library, and for a while their President, and in some respects the most self-sacrificing friend and benefactor the Library ever had, died at his house on Park Street, January 26th, 1871; and on the proving of his will, February 20th, the public were made aware of the following Article in it: —

"NINTH. On the death of my wife, I give to the city of Boston, where I was born, where I have lived a long and happy life and where I hope to die, all my books and manuscripts in the Spanish and Portuguese languages; and I further give and bequeath to the same city of Boston, the sum of four thousand dollars to be paid within one year after the probate of this my will, the same to be always kept by the said city safely invested at interest for the purposes hereinafter specified. But I make these two bequests to the city of Boston only in trust for the following purposes, and no other, to wit: —

(1.) That, in the course of each and every period of five years during the twenty-five years next succeeding the receipt by the said city of the said sum of four thousand dollars, the said city shall expend not less than one thousand dollars in the purchase of books in the Spanish and Portuguese languages and literatures, or in one of them; and furthermore expressing it as my wish, but not as my requirement, in order, so far as may be, to insure the purchase of books already determined to be worth possessing, that no books shall be so purchased during said twenty-five years, nor afterwards, from the income of the said fund of four thousand dollars, which shall not have been published in some one edition at least five years; it being my will that every book purchased at any time from the income of my said fund of four thousand dollars, shall be a book of permanent value and authority, and neither newspapers, periodicals, nor other popular publications not likely to be of lasting consideration.

(2.) That no person whatsoever, shall, at any time or under any circumstances, except for binding or needful repairs in binding, be permitted to remove from the proper rooms of the Public Library, any of the books hereby bequeathed or for the purchase of which provision is hereby made; but that within such rooms, and at all such times and hours, and under such restrictions as the Trustees or other lawful managers of the said Library may deem expedient or reasonable, each and all of said books so bequeathed, or so purchased, shall be freely accessible for reference or study to all such persons as may be permitted to resort to said Library, or to use it.

(3.) That at the end of the twenty-five years aforesaid, and in each and every year thereafter forever, the said city of Boston shall cause the income of the said fund of four thousand dollars, but no part of the principal, to be expended in the purchase of books of permanent value, either in the Spanish and Portuguese languages, or in such other languages as may be deemed expedient by the Trustees of the said Library, or other persons having lawful charge of the same, but always under the conditions and restrictions herein before expressed, namely: That the same shall be used only in the proper rooms of the said Library, and never lent abroad or out of them.

(4.) That none of the books bequeathed by me as aforesaid, or to be purchased from the income of the fund of four thousand dollars as aforesaid, shall, at any time, be sold, exchanged or given away; but that they shall, if not inconvenient, be kept together, like the Bowditch and the Parker collections, now in the said Library.

(5.) That, if at any time the fund aforesaid shall, from any cause whatever, become diminished, then at least one-half of the annual income thereof shall yearly be added to the principal until the full sum of four thousand dollars shall be made good again.

(6.) But in case the city of Boston shall refuse or neglect for the space of one year after the probate of this my will to accept the said bequest of books, manuscripts, and money, on the trusts and conditions hereinbefore set forth, or shall, at any time, after accepting the same, fail or neglect faithfully to fulfil each and all of said trusts and conditions, according to their true spirit and intent, then, and in either of said cases, I give and bequeath the same books, manuscripts, and money to the President and Fellows of Harvard College, in the city of Cambridge, for the use of the General Library of the said college, upon the same trusts and conditions, so far as the same can be made applicable to the said General Library, giving, as I do hereby give, to the said President and Fellows, full power to sue for and recover the said books, manuscripts, and money or any of them, from the said city of Boston, or from any person or persons who may have the same, or any of them, in his or their possession."

The information that Mrs. Ticknor had offered to relinquish her right to retain the books, was conveyed to the City Council through the Mayor of the city by Mr. Ticknor's executors, Mr. William S. Dexter signing for them, March 6th; and, the matter being referred to the Committee on the Library, that committee reported to the City Council.

The report said: —

"The collection was begun at Madrid in the year 1817, and was substantially completed between that time and the year 1838. Since then, only such books have been added as he was unable to secure previously. From the inability of book-collectors to supply his wants while making original purchases, he resorted to the employment of priests, professors, and persons in private life to obtain rare works. For many years Professor Gayangos acted as his agent in Spain; but his efforts to procure what he wanted were not confined to that country, — he purchased Spanish books in all the great book markets of the world. So assiduous was his pursuit that the complaint was made, several years ago, that he had raised the prices of Spanish books in all the principal marts. Of the value of the collection thus made, without reference to cost, it is perhaps enough to say, that no single library in Spain possesses all the books it contains. The only collections of equal value are the great Spanish Library in the British Museum, and the private collection of Lord Holland."

The City Council accepted the bequest in accordance with the terms and conditions of the will. In April, the City Council

"Ordered: That the Auditor of Accounts be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer from the Reserved Fund the sum of three thousand dollars, to be constituted a special appropriation, and styled 'Ticknor Bequest,' to meet the requirements of the order of the City Council, approved April 4, 1871, in relation to the bequest of George Ticknor to the Public Library."

The following resolution and order were passed by the Board of Trustees, April 26th, 1871: —

"Resolved, That the Trustees of the Public Library have received with deep sensibility the bequest of their late associate and President, Mr. George Ticknor, of that portion of his library to which he had specially given the care and affection of the last fifty years of his life, — gathering therein, in the literature and language of the Spanish and Portuguese tongues, a collection unparalleled in this country, and hardly equalled among the best libraries in Europe, — and in thus crowning his disinterested and enlightened labors in behalf of this institution, by the gift of that portion of his possessions most closely associated with his literary life and the advancement of American scholarship, he here made the final record of his confidence in the principles upon which the Public Library was established, by the exercise of which it has prospered in no ordinary degree, and through the adherence to which its future usefulness must mainly depend.

"Resolved, That the thanks of the Trustees be tendered to Mrs. Ticknor, and to the family, for the generous construction which they have given to the language of the bequest, whereby the intentions of the donor have been most largely fulfilled.

"Ordered, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the President of this board, and be transmitted to Mrs. Ticknor and the family."

The books were removed to the Library, April 26th and 27th, and a subsequent count of them, gave 3,760 printed volumes, 14 bound manuscript volumes, 598 pamphlets, and several unbound manuscripts.

There also was sent to the Trustees, a manuscript, endorsed in Mr. Ticknor's hand, as follows: "Titles of Spanish Books and Portuguese Books that may be useful in making purchases to complete my collections."

This showed 375 titles, and to it was appended the following: —

"P. S. A good many of the books indicated in the preceding list, were seen and used by me only in public or private libraries in Europe. Such books, however, are noticed more or less amply in my History of Spanish Literature. Others are cited by Julius and Gayangos, in their learned notes to the German and Spanish translations of that work, as having been seen and used by them. In the last edition of the original, therefore, or in these two versions of it, more minute notices of the books referred to may sometimes be found, and will, perhaps, be useful when lists and orders, in which exact titles are always desirable, are to be sent to Europe for purchases."

The following is also of interest: —

"Memorandum concerning a bequest to the city of Boston, of something more than three thousand five hundred volumes of Spanish and Portuguese books, and of four thousand dollars, five per cent. of the income of which shall, for twenty-five years, be employed in purchasing for the Public Library other books in the same languages.

"In these arrangements, I have followed what, during the past course of the Public Library, has seemed judicious: namely, the general idea, that collections of books needed only by small portions of the community — unless they are books especially asked for — ought to be obtained from the generosity of the persons interested in them, while the public should supply all others. Thus, in the case of Mr. Bates, it will be remembered that he directed a part of his last munificent gift of fifty thousand dollars to be expended in a particular rare collection of books on Music; — the sons of the late Dr. Bowditch gave their father's important collection of books in Mathematics; — and the late Theodore Parker gave his classical and scholarlike library. Meantime, however, the institution relied safely on the municipal authorities for all the current expenses of its administration, and for the resources needed in purchasing the large masses of books devoted to the culture, progress, and welfare of the community generally; just as we all rely on the city government for the support of our free schools, and for the same reasons.

"A library, however, that is open to a very great number of persons as freely as the Boston Public Library is open, and as freely as many other libraries will become, — perhaps even our college libraries, — is a somewhat bold experiment; and, therefore, a considerable time will probably elapse before it will be determined how such an institution can best be constituted and how it can best be administered. But we may be sure, that if we are willing to wait, we shall learn all that is really desirable to know on a subject growing so important.

"Meanwhile, it seems impossible that harm of any sort can come from building up, during a moderate number of years, any particular department of the Boston Library, whether it be already strong or whether it is still deficient. On the contrary, it seems likely to be of good example. For, if the collection of books in the Greek and Latin classics, or that in Astronomy, for instance, should thus attract notice by its completeness or importance, it seems sure that such departments as the German, or the Engineering, or the Chemical, will not be overlooked, while for reasons still more obvious and urgent, the departments in History, in Travels, in Biography, in Mechanics, and in the literatures of the United States, England, and France, will be rendered as complete as the resources of the institution will properly permit, just as they always have been, and, as I trust, they always will be.

"At any rate, so far as my own little fund is concerned, I have provided that this experiment shall go on for five and twenty years; but, after that time, that the subject shall be considered afresh, and, if it is no longer thought by the persons having lawful charge of the Library, that my little experiment should be continued exclusively in the purchase of books in Spanish and Portuguese, then that the whole income of my fund of four thousand dollars shall be, from time to time, devoted to the purchase, for the Library, of any good and solid books of permanent value in any language, and on any subject that may be deemed, by such persons having charge of the Library, most likely to advance the culture and well-being of the city.

Indicator Finding List.

A manuscript List of the numbers represented on the Indicator and of the titles of the books corresponding to these numbers has been prepared as subsidiary to the Class List for Fiction, and will be found at the Clerk's desk.

As the pins of the Indicator always have the ends bearing black figures on a white ground turned outwards when the books are on the shelf, this List will furnish the means of readily ascertaining what books are at any time in the alcoves represented by the Indicator. This information cannot easily be derived from the Class List, which is arranged alphabetically under authors and titles, and not numerically according to the order of the books on the shelves. Hence, to learn whether a given work of fiction is on the shelf, find its title and number in the Class List, and then consult the Indicator. But to learn the title of a book answering to any number on the Indicator, consult only the Indicator Finding List.

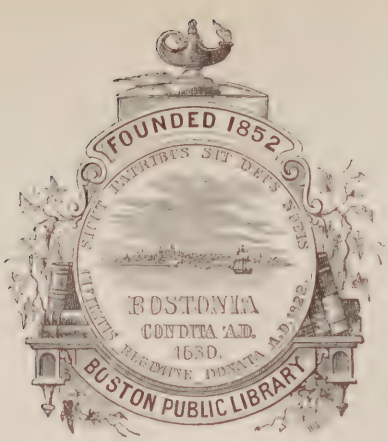
Public Card Catalogue for the Lower Hall.

A Card Catalogue, containing only the titles of works (not anonymous) which have been added to the Lower Library since the issue of the various Finding Lists, has been placed at the Clerk's Desk in the Distributing Hall. In the printed Bulletins, such works are entered only under the names of their authors. These printed entries have been cut out of the various Bulletins and inserted in alphabetical order in a book which is in the custody of the Clerk, and which can be consulted on application to him. This book, therefore, and the Card Catalogue, taken together, show all the additions, both under author and title, which have been made to the Lower Library since the publication of the several Finding Lists.

A Memorial of Dr. Channing.

William F. Channing, M. D., and his sister, Mrs. Mary Channing Eustis, have given the Library nearly 300 volumes, and over 2,000 pamphlets, which belonged to their father, the Rev. William Ellery Channing, D.D. Many of the volumes were purchased in Europe for Doctor Channing by the late Edward Everett. The collection illustrates very fully the phases of the Unitarian controversy of Doctor Channing's day, and the pamphlets, taken in connection with such as the Library had before, form a very valuable series, illustrative of that theological movement in this country and in England. The titles of the volumes are inserted in the present Bulletin.

Inventors, and Others



Interested in the application of the arts and sciences to practical uses, will find the Library particularly strong in works that will be of service to them. It is intended to supply every reasonable need in this direction, and to make the collection one pre-eminently fitted to advance the interests of every branch of mechanical industry, and to afford aid in every field of invention. The latest works on any subject, when the applicant does not know the authors, can always be ascertained on application.

In the British Patent Specifications — of which about one hundred and forty bound volumes are received yearly — is offered one of the best-arranged sets of this costly and important work to be found in the country. It is given unbound by the British Government, at a yearly cost to them of about £130, and is substantially bound for the Library, in London, the plates being backed with cartridge paper. The only other complete sets in the country are believed to be those in Washington, in the Peabody Institute at Baltimore, in the Library of The Philadelphia Library Company, in the Astor Library, at New York, in the State Library, at Albany, and a set recently given to the Mercantile Library of St. Louis. The specifications now amount to about 72,000, and there is an annual increase of 3,500. Since the last Bulletin, 42 volumes in folio, and 48 in octavo have been received. The work now numbers over 2,600 volumes, one-half of which are plates in folio. There are about a hundred volumes of indexes. The Library possesses also the French Patents (Brevets d'invention), and these, together with the issues of our own Patent Office, include about all that is desirable of these official publications in any language.

Price of Catalogues.

The Bulletins (begun Oct., 1867), of which 17 numbers have been issued, are for sale in the Library, at two cents each. The List of Periodicals currently received (750 in number, of which 374 are kept in the Reading Room), issued in Sept., 1870, is for sale at five cents. The Supplementary Index to the books in the Bates Hall (issued in 1866) is for sale at $2.00, and the Catalogue of the Prince Library at $1.00. The main Index of the Bates Hall (issued in 1861) is out of print, but a limited number of copies of both the Index and Supplement circulate like other books. The Lower Hall Class or Finding List for English Prose Fiction (fifth edition), is now in press, and that for Poetry, the Drama, Collected Works, etc. (issued July, 1870), is for sale, in the Lower Delivery Hall, at ten cents; the Finding List for Biography and Travels (issued in May, 1868) at five cents; and that for Works in Foreign Languages (issued in 1867) at two cents. The Finding List for the Sciences, Arts, and Professions (issued in 1867), and that for History and Politics (issued in 1867), are out of print; but new editions will be issued as soon as possible. The catalogue of the East Boston Branch is for sale at the Branch.

Copies of these various Catalogues are always accessible on the tables of the Bates Hall, and at the Clerk's Desk in the Lower Delivery Hall, and at the East Boston Branch.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.

EDWARD CAPEN, Keeper of Lower Halls. JOSEPH SYKES, Keeper of Bates Hall.

WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

SARAH C. GODBOLD, Librarian of East Boston Branch.

Days and Hours, etc.

All departments are open every secular day except the five legal holidays, — February 22, Fast Day, July 4, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, — and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

Bates Hall, 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. in winter, and to 7 P.M. in summer.

Lower Hall, 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Open for receiving books at 8.30 A.M.

Central Reading Room, 9 A.M. to 10 P.M. Seats for one hundred readers.

East Boston Branch, 9 A.M. to 9 P.M. Book delivery ceases at 8 P.M.

Extent of the Collections. The Bates Hall has about 137,000 volumes; the Lower Hall, 31,500 volumes; the East Boston Branch, 6,000 volumes, — a total (including 7,000 sale duplicates) of more than 181,000 volumes, besides 90,000 pamphlets.

The Central Reading Room has upwards of 374 different periodicals; the East Boston Branch Reading Room has 28.

Persons Admitted to Use the Libraries.

I. To use periodicals or books in the buildings. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the buildings, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the buildings. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular professional occupation in the city; all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools; and all pupils attending the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the name of a citizen, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall of the Central Library, and at the East Boston Branch.

III. Non-residents. Non-resident members of educational institutions in the city and other non-residents (when specially permitted, in consideration of the advancement of the public interests), may use the Libraries, in accordance with the conditions imposed in each case by the Trustees.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided the circulation of the present copies warrants such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. Copies are not duplicated in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

Special Students,

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received at the Library, can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes, and catalogued. It is intended in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These will be put on the shelves in boxes, and for the box the bound volume will be substituted, when the needful numbers are procured. Solicitations are renewed for lots of pamphlets, which will be sent for, on receiving information that they are ready. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets wanted, and the others will avail in exchanges. The number of duplicate pamphlets is now about 30,000, all arranged, and ready to be exchanged for others not belonging to the Library. With distant libraries, the following method of exchange has been found the most convenient: if they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their state, or in a given locality, this Library will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts, or in some other locality. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

Plans of Boston Estates.

An effort is making to collect for the Library engraved plans of real estate in Boston, and through the kindness of Messrs. N. A. Thompson and Co. and Messrs. Samuel Hatch and Co. the interval of the last thirty years has been partially covered. A circular has been sent out soliciting additional contributions of this sort, and the assistance of Boston citizens and of friends of the Library elsewhere is desired, in order to complete the collection, which must prove to be exceedingly valuable.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates the history or topography of the city. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions; and it is to be hoped that friends of the Library will assist in making the collection complete.

Coast Survey Maps.

The United States Coast Survey charts belonging to the Library having been carefully mounted and placed in boxes, a list of them is given in this Bulletin. Some of the preliminary charts and other issues are still wanting, and of some there are probably other impressions, of earlier or later date, showing variations in the plates, which are also wanting. Friends of the Library will confer a favor, if they will contribute anything not already contained in the collection, so as to aid in making it complete.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING APRIL, MAY, AND JUNE, 1871.

N B.—From this List are omitted continuations of periodicals and of certain serials, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate books, many pamphlets, and the like.

☞ The letters E. B., in full-face type, prefixed to the shelf number, indicate an addition to the East Boston Branch Library.

☞ Shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those below 2110 are in the Lower Hall.—A single dash stands for the preceding heading; a subsequent dash for a subordinate heading.—R. R. means Reading Room; N. R., Newspaper Room.—In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs, ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; as, Goethe, J. W. von.—Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names not usually retained; as Ahn, (J.) F.—When the date of publication of a book could not be ascertained, the year in which it was copyrighted (if stated) is given within brackets, with "cop." prefixed.—8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the printed sheet as shown by the signatures; but the epithets "large," "small," and "oblong," or the like, are sometimes added to give a better idea of the size or shape of the bound volume.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor, if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

Lower Hall Catalogues.

The Lower Hall was opened in the summer of 1858, with 15,000 volumes. The complete printed Catalogue was in one volume, royal octavo, double columns, 200 pages, and was ready for the public in October of that year. Eight yearly supplements were printed.

In 1866, incident to a revision of the books, it was decided to issue brief-title Alcove or Finding Lists, preparatory to a new consolidated Catalogue of the entire collection in this Hall. This divisionary form has been found convenient for keeping the Catalogue up with the growth of the Library, as it admits of new editions of the Lists, with a degree of frequency corresponding to their respective popularity. The character of the Lists, in the late editions, has been changed from mere Alcove Lists to proper Class Lists. The following have been printed: —

I. Fiction and Juveniles. 1*st edition*, September, 1866, 34 pages. — 2*d edition*, December, 1866, 41 pages. — 3*d edition*, August, 1868, 57 pages. — 4*th edition*, October, 1869, 66 pages. — 5*th edition*, August, 1871, 76 pages.

II. Arts, Sciences and Professions. 1*st edition*, 59 pages, April, 1867.

III. History, Politics, etc. 1*st edition*, May, 1867, 27 pages.

IV. French, German, and Italian Books. 1*st edition*, September, 1867, 45 pages.

V. Biography and Travels. 1*st edition*, May, 1868, 52 pages.

VI. Poetry, Drama, and Miscellanies. 1*st edition*, August, 1870, 128 pages.

Public Card Catalogue and Consolidated Bulletin for the Lower Hall.

A Card Catalogue, containing only the titles of works (not anonymous) which have been added to the Lower Library since the issues of the various Finding Lists, has been placed at the Clerk's Desk in the Distributing Hall. In the printed Bulletins, such works are entered only under the names of their authors. These printed entries have been cut out of the various Bulletins and inserted in alphabetical order in a book which is in the custody of the Clerk, and which can be consulted on application to him. This book, therefore, and the Card Catalogue, taken together, show all the additions, both under author and title, which have been made to the Lower Library since the publication of the several Finding Lists.

Engraved Portraits.

Portfolios and scrap-books have been prepared for the preservation of engraved portraits, and any contributions of this kind will be gladly accepted. Particular attention will be paid to the gathering of likenesses of Bostonians.

The Portraits of the Tosti Collection.

A List has lately been issued of that portion of the collection of engravings made by the late Cardinal Tosti, of Rome, and given to this Library by Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, which consists of portraits. It includes 676 prints (many of which are rare), and shows about 1600 entries, making a pamphlet of twenty-four pages of the size of this Bulletin page.

The entries are under the names of the subjects of the engravings, with cross-references from the names of painters and engravers, and in certain cases from those of the designers or draughtsmen.

The following (24) prints have not been identified as likenesses; and the Superintendent would be glad to receive any information leading to the discovery of the persons represented by them: —

— A full-bearded man with a three-cornered cap. Gravé par Meunier élève de Calamatta Bruxelles 1843. Proof, with engraver's name only. 182

Works on Military Science.

At the time of the first formation of the Bates Hall collection, the Library was under obligations to General Sylvanus Thayer, of the United States Corps of Engineers, for lists of books in this department, the purchase of which rendered the Library much better fitted to meet what was required of it at the outbreak of the late Civil War, than most of the libraries in the country. Since that time, much has been done to meet the wants of the public, both during the progress of the war and subsequently, by filling the gaps important to be filled, as they were discovered. A collection thus reasonably good has recently been made so complete in the departments of Fortification and Artillery as to be second only to the Library of the Military Academy at West Point. This is due to General Thayer, who has now placed in the Library his own private collection of works on those important subjects. The community is thus under renewed obligations to the veteran soldier who was the organizer of the Academy at West Point and the engineer who constructed Fort Warren.

Works on Music.

Mr. John K. Paine, Professor of Music in Harvard University, has kindly furnished the following statement regarding the strength and the deficiencies of the Musical Department of the Library: —

"The Library received, in 1858, as a part of the gift of Mr. Bates, a collection of about 500 works relating to the history, science, and art of music, which was procured through the intelligent and zealous intervention of Mr. A. W. Thayer, the distinguished musical writer. The basis of the collection was the library of the late M. de Koudelka, of which it was well said, that 'any one knowing the extreme rarity of books of music, particularly of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, will be surprised at the richness of the collection.' To the Koudelka Library, Mr. Thayer added more than one hundred volumes. The theoretical writings of Aaron, Artusi, Bononcini, Bontempi, Coclius, Doni, Gafori, Galilei, Glareanus, Heyden, Kircher, Ornitoparchus, Prætorius, Zarlino, and other learned mediæval authorities are embraced in this collection. It has, besides these, many works of noted excellence by later writers in musical science, history, and biography; namely, Albrechtsberger, Adlung, C. P. E. Bach, Burney, Fux, Gerber, Gerbert, Forkel, Jones, J. A. Hiller, Hawkins, La Borde, J. G. L. Mozart, North, Quanz, Martini, Rousseau, Scheibe, Schubart, Tartini, Ambros, Bellermann, Brendel, Coussemaker, Chrysander, Dehn, Dricberg, Fétis, Hauptmann, Hand, Helmholtz, Jahn, Kiesewetter, Lobe, Marx, Riehl, Rochlitz, Reissmann, Schumann, Winterfeld, Wagner, and others. Mention should also be made of twenty-eight quarto volumes of manuscript music, selected and copied by Professor S. W. Dehn, late custos of the musical collection of the Royal Library, at Berlin. This selection was made from the best published and unpublished musical compositions of the sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth centuries, including the works of Anerio, Caldara, Cherubini, Clari, Colonna, Gabrielli, Hasse, Hammerschmidt, Lasso, Leo, Lotti, Jomelli, Marcello, Palestrina, Scarlatti, Porta, Pergolese, Schütz, and other masters. During the last twelve years, books have constantly been added to the collection, and it is now comparatively rich in works relating to the history, biography, theory, and criticism of music.

"The collection, however, is almost wholly deficient in the following branches: —

"1. The works of the English madrigalists of the sixteenth century, — Tallis, Byrd, Dowland, Bull, Bennet, and others.

"2. The German sacred music of the sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth centuries.

"3. The operas of the Neopolitan, French, German, and English masters of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

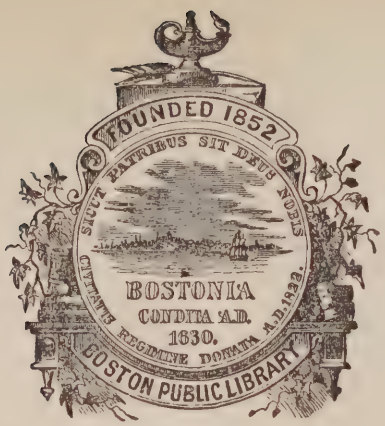
"It is also desirable that the Library should possess, —

"1. The complete works of the so-called classical masters, Handel, Haydn, Gluck, Mozart, and Beethoven.

"2. The principal vocal and instrumental compositions of the later German school of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Schumann, and others.

"3. The most noted operas of the German, Italian, and French composers of the nineteenth century.

"These important additions would place the Musical Department of the Library in advance of any other collection in the United States.



"No more practical step could be taken towards the advancement of musical knowledge and taste among us, than the formation of such a museum of musical art. With the scores of all great masters, of every epoch and school, at hand, it would be comparatively easy to bring their works to publication and performance, and many treasures, now wholly neglected by the public, in this country, would ultimately find appreciation and use, and thus lead to a more enlightened and catholic taste."

It is to be hoped that friends of the Library will assist in making this department complete.

Price of Catalogues.

The Bulletins (begun Oct., 1867), of which 18 numbers have been issued, are for sale in the Library, at two cents each. The List of Periodicals currently received (750 in number, of which 374 are kept in the Reading Room), issued in Sept., 1870, is for sale at five cents. The Supplementary Index to the books in the Bates Hall (issued in 1866) is for sale at $2.00, and the Catalogue of the Prince Library at $1.00. The main Index of the Bates Hall (issued in 1861) is out of print, but a limited number of copies of both the Index and Supplement circulate like other books. The Lower Hall Class or Finding List for English Prose Fiction (fifth edition just issued) is for sale in the Lower Delivery Hall at fifteen cents; that for Poetry, the Drama, Collected Works, etc. (issued July, 1870), at twenty cents; the Finding List for Biography and Travels (issued in May, 1868), at five cents; and that for Works in Foreign Languages (issued in 1867), at two cents. The Finding List for the Sciences, Arts and Professions (issued in 1867) and that for History and Politics (issued in 1867) are out of print; but new editions will be issued very soon. The Catalogue of the East Boston Branch is for sale at the Branch, at twenty cents.

Copies of these various Catalogues are always accessible on the tables of the Bates Hall, at the Clerk's Desk in the Lower Delivery Hall, and at the East Boston Branch.

Officers.

JUSTIN WINSOR, SUPERINTENDENT, AND SECRETARY OF THE TRUSTEES.

WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Assistant Superintendent.

EDWARD CAPEN, Keeper of Lower Halls. JOSEPH SYKES, Keeper of Bates Hall.

WILLIAM E. FORD, Janitor.

SARAH C. GODBOLD, Librarian of East Boston Branch.

Days and Hours, etc.

All departments are open every secular day except the five legal holidays, — February 22, Fast Day, July 4, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, — and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

Bates Hall, 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. in winter, and to 7 P.M. in summer.

Lower Hall, 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Open for receiving books at 8.30 A.M.

Central Reading Room, 9 A.M. to 10 P.M. Seats for one hundred readers.

East Boston Branch, 9 A.M. to 8.30 P.M. Book delivery ceases at 8 P.M.

Extent of the Collections. The Bates Hall has about 138,000 volumes; the Lower Hall, 31,500 volumes; the East Boston Branch, 6,200 volumes, — a total (including 7,100 sale duplicates) of more than 183,000 volumes, besides 94,000 pamphlets.

The Central Reading Room has upwards of 384 different periodicals; the East Boston Branch Reading Room has 35.

Persons Admitted to Use the Libraries.

I. To use periodicals or books in the buildings. Any person above the age of 14 years may use the Reading Room for periodicals, and, if above 16, may make use of the books within the buildings, without previous registration.

II. To take books away from the buildings. All citizens and residents of Boston above the age of 16 years; all non-resident Clergymen and Teachers having regular professional occupation in the city; all inhabitants, even if under 16, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools; and all pupils attending the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All these must sign the application card, and give the name of a citizen, who may be consulted, if necessary. The registration takes place in the Lower Delivery Hall of the Central Library, and at the East Boston Branch.

III. Non-residents. Non-resident members of educational institutions in the city and other non-residents (when specially permitted, in consideration of the advancement of the public interests), may use the Libraries, in accordance with the conditions imposed in each case by the Trustees.

Lists of Books Newly Published,

And received between the successive issues of the Bulletin, will be kept, in the order of their accession, in a separate record for each Hall, open for public inspection. Books from London, Paris, and Leipsic are received twice a month; from Florence, once a year.

Books Recommended.

Any person desiring a book not in the possession of this Library may ask, on blanks furnished for the purpose, that it may be purchased; and the assurance is given, that, unless there is some special reason why it should not be ordered, it will be procured as soon as possible, and the applicant — in all cases where the book is absolutely bought upon his recommendation — will be notified of its reception. If duplicates for the Lower Hall are asked for, they will be ordered, provided the circulation of the present copies warrants such additions. In asking that a duplicate shall be purchased, the applicant will be particular to designate it as such. Copies are not duplicated in the Bates Hall.

Those availing themselves of this privilege will greatly contribute to avoid delay and disappointment, if, in their applications, they will give exact titles, as well as authorship, imprint, etc., and if they will, above all, write legibly.

It must be remembered that books published in foreign countries are purchased through the Library's agents in such countries, in order to avoid the duties, and to get as large a discount as possible; and hence an interval of at least six or eight weeks will occur between the time of ordering a work and that of its receipt.

Special Students,

Desiring to be informed when any book in their line of investigation is received at the Library, can have word sent them, if they will communicate their name and address, and the subject of their inquiries, to the Superintendent; but, in such cases, books will not be retained subject to the call of the persons notified, as is done with books recommended.

Pamphlets Solicited and Exchanged.

The collection of pamphlets belonging to the Library is now all arranged; and many of them are in bound volumes, and catalogued. It is intended in future to keep no pamphlets unbound, except in order to complete sets or series. These will be put on the shelves in boxes, and for the box the bound volume will be substituted, when the needful numbers are procured. Solicitations are renewed for lots of pamphlets, which will be sent for, on receiving information that they are ready. The chances are, that any miscellaneous lot will contain a fair proportion of the very pamphlets wanted, and the others will avail in exchanges. The number of duplicate pamphlets is now upwards of 30,000, all arranged, and ready to be exchanged for others not belonging to the Library. With distant libraries, the following method of exchange has been found the most convenient: if they will send 1,000 pamphlets printed in their state, or in a given locality, this Library will send 1,000 printed in Massachusetts, or in some other locality. Each may acquire some duplicates, but a great part will probably be fresh accessions.

Plans of Boston Estates.

An effort is making to collect for the Library lithographed or other engraved plans of real estate in Boston, and through the kindness of Messrs. N. A. Thompson and Co. and Messrs. Samuel Hatch and Co. the interval of the last thirty years has been partially covered. A circular has been sent out soliciting additional contributions of this sort, and the assistance of Boston citizens and of friends of the Library elsewhere is desired, in order to complete the collection, which must prove to be exceedingly valuable.

Memorials of Boston.

The Public Library of the city should contain every memorial, whether book, pamphlet, map, broadside, print, photograph, or the like, which is procurable, and which in any way illustrates the history or topography of the city. Books printed in Boston at an early date are very desirable acquisitions; and it is to be hoped that friends of the Library will assist in making the collection complete.

LIST OF BOOKS

PLACED IN THE LIBRARY, OR NEWLY LOCATED,

DURING JULY, AUGUST, AND SEPTEMBER, 1871.

N.B.—From this List are omitted continuations of periodicals and of certain serials, booksellers' catalogues, duplicate books, many pamphlets, and the like.

☞ The letters E. B., in full-face type, prefixed to the shelf number, indicate an addition to the East Boston Branch Library.

☞ Shelves numbered 2110 and upwards are in the Bates Hall; those below 2110 are in the Lower Hall.—A single dash stands for the preceding heading; a subsequent dash for a subordinate heading.—R. R. means Reading Room; N. R., Newspaper Room; M. S., Map Stand.—In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs, ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; as, Goetzinger, M. W.—Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names not usually retained; as Dickens C. (J. H.)—When the date of publication of a book could not be ascertained, the year in which it was copyrighted (if stated) is given within brackets, with "cop." prefixed.—8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the printed sheet as shown by the signatures; but the epithets "large," "small," and "oblong," or the like, are sometimes added to give a better idea of the size or shape of the bound volume.

☞ All books in this list, except the few which are starred, can be had without special application.

 Friends of the Public Library will confer a favor, if they will kindly communicate to the Superintendent the correction of any error they may discover in this List, or the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

George Ticknor's Spanish Collection.

The Reverend G. S. Plumley, of New York, contributed to the number of Harper's Monthly for November, 1871, an article with the above title, concerning Mr. Ticknor's recent bequest to this Library, from which a few paragraphs are extracted: —

"Many of them [the books] contain important annotations on the fly-leaves and margins from Mr. Ticknor's pen, and, besides, there are numerous scraps laid within the volumes, which will be carefully preserved and fastened upon them, bearing references and notes of great literary value. There are many Elzevir editions of ancient authors, and rich old copies of the early dramatists and poets bound in calf and vellum. Here are numerous copies of the celebrated poem of 'The Cid.' Here also you may find Mr Ticknor's copied extracts from the Escurial manuscript of the famous and venerable Jew, the 'Rabbi Don Santob.' . . . The 'Provençal Literature' is in another portion, fully illustrated throughout its series of authors. Cervantes and Lope de Vega are amply represented by numerous copies of each chef-d'œuvre; and an editor can now easily collate a revision of 'Don Quixote' without going beyond Boston. . . .

"Among the rarer curiosities of this unique collection are many valuable books that have been condemned by the judges of the Inquisition, some of which, if we may so speak, have themselves suffered its tortures, bearing visible marks of the cuttings and burnings and expurgations to which its agents subjected them. One of these is the 'Varia Opuscula' of Mariana, a voluminous Jesuit writer. The worthy heads of the Inquisition have cut in pieces the copy in Mr. Ticknor's collection, and, after removing the fourth treatise, have bound it again together. The title-page is quite a monument of their skill in patching and piecing. They have cut out of it the title of the fourth treatise, and then prefixed a capital I to the next number, V, making it thus IV. From VI and VII the erasure of the final letter changes them to V and VI. There is a little stain on the left side of this page, where something, now gone, was once pasted, and Mr. Ticknor has written over it, 'Here, I suppose, was the certificate of expurgation.' Other portions of this persecuted tome, that could not be easily cut out, have been blackened and blotted with unsightly daubs of ink. . . .

"In the Ticknor collection may also be seen four of the official accounts of general autos-da-fé, or public accusations and burnings under the direction of the Inquisition. The 'Relacions del Autos-da-Fé' were regularly drawn-up official reports of those awful sacrifices, and were generally printed, though not always. Several of them exist in the Bodleian Library.

"Mr. Ticknor's are those of the auto at Logroño, November 7 and 8, 1610, and of the autos of 1720, 1721, and 1756, the two former at Granada, the latter at Madrid. Upon a fly-leaf Mr. Ticknor writes, 'These are the official accounts of three autos-da-fé that happened in 1720 and 1721 at Granada, and in 1756 at Madrid: the only accounts of the sort that I have ever seen.'"

Alterations in the Library Building.

Changes are making in the Bates Hall, under direction of the Committee on Public Buildings of the City Council, by which additional room will be secured for more than 100,000 volumes. The present alcoves are to have their triangular ends farthest from the Hall squared, and are then to be subdivided by a double row of shelving, which will give sixty alcoves on each side of the Hall where there are now thirty, and of equal shelf capacity. They will be three feet wide, with windows at the end. The change will be completed on the westerly side during the winter; and, in the spring, the easterly side will be changed. During the present work of alteration, it has not been found possible to provide temporary accommodation for the fifty thousand volumes which are appropriately lodged on the western side, and the general circulation of these books (which are those of history, biography, travel, and general literature) has been necessarily stopped. Such an arrangement as was possible has been made in these alcoves to facilitate the finding of any book, that there may be urgent need for. All new books which may be added to the Library, though properly belonging to this section of the classifications, have been temporarily provided for, and will be delivered as usual; but this service will be more prompt if applicants for such books will state the fact of their recent accession. Such books as were in the hands of borrowers, belonging in the closed alcoves, are also arranged as they are returned, so that they can be again delivered. The books which are still in use are those of the sciences, arts, and professions, with sets of bound periodicals, the transactions of learned societies, the greater part of the Parker Library, the American and British public documents, all Patent Reports and Specifications, and the Ticknor and Bowditch Libraries.

The Bulletins.

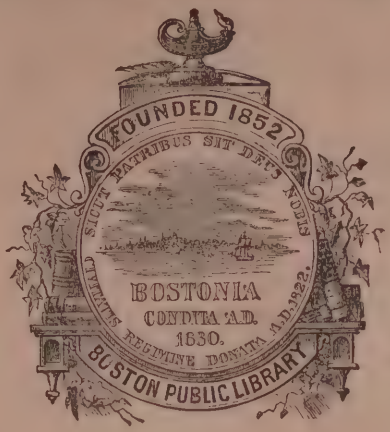
With this number the first volume of this publication is completed, and a title-page accompanies this issue. It is intended to make these periodical lists in future more particularly a chronicle of the freshest and most important additions to the Library, leaving the Card Catalogue to furnish information regarding older books. It is hoped that these Bulletins have shown the constant care which has been taken to ascertain the authorship of anonymous and pseudonymous books. The efforts which have been made to do this have been largely seconded by publishers, who have kindly and promptly answered the queries addressed to them.

Special Volumes.

Under the headings of Dickens, Everett, Franco-German war, Lincoln, and Portland, in the present Bulletin, will be found a number of memorial volumes, which will preserve the record of special events. A volume on the Chicago Fire and the general burst of sympathy through the country which it called forth, is now gathering, and friends of the Library are invited to contribute papers, prints, maps, or other printed matter, to assist in making it more complete.

Public Card Catalogue and Consolidated Bulletin for the Lower Hall.

A Card Catalogue, containing only the titles of works (not anonymous) which have been added to the Lower Library since the issues of the various Finding Lists, has been placed at the Clerk's Desk in the Distributing Hall. In the printed Bulletins, such works are entered only under the names of their authors. These printed entries have been cut out of the various Bulletins and inserted in alphabetical order in a book which is in the custody of the Clerk, and which can be consulted on application to him. This book, therefore, and the Card Catalogue, taken together, show all the additions, both under author and title, which have been made to the Lower Library since the publication of the several Finding Lists.



Engraved Portraits.

Portfolios and scrap-books have been prepared for the preservation of engraved portraits, and any contributions of this kind will be gladly accepted. Particular attention will be paid to the gathering of likenesses of Bostonians.

Price of Catalogues.

The Bulletins (begun Oct., 1867), of which 19 numbers have been issued, are for sale at two cents each. The List of Periodicals currently received (nearly 800 in number, of which about one-half are kept in the Reading Room), issued in Sept., 1870, is for sale at five cents. The Supplementary Index to the books in the Bates Hall (issued in 1866) is for sale at $2.00, and the Catalogue of the Prince Library at $1.00. The main Index of the Bates Hall (issued in 1861) is out of print, but a limited number of copies of both the Index and Supplement circulate like other books. The Lower Hall Class or Finding List for English Prose Fiction (fifth edition lately issued) is for sale in the Lower Delivery Hall at fifteen cents; that for Poetry, the Drama, Collected Works, etc. (issued July, 1870), at twenty cents; that for Biography and Travels (issued in May, 1868), at five cents; that for Works in Foreign Languages (issued in 1867), at two cents; that for the Arts and Sciences (second edition just issued), at ten cents. The Finding List for History and Politics (issued in 1867) is out of print; but a new edition, consolidated with that for Biography and Travels, is in preparation. The Catalogue of the East Boston Branch is for sale at the Branch, at twenty cents.

Copies of these various Catalogues are always accessible on the tables of the Bates Hall, at the Clerk's Desk in the Lower Delivery Hall, and at the East Boston Branch.

LOWER HALL.

CLASS LIST FOR WORKS IN THE ARTS AND SCIENCES,

INCLUDING

Theology, Medicine, Law, Philosophy (Moral, Mental, Political, and Social), Education, Religious and Devotional Books, Ecclesiastical History and Missions, Domestic and Rural Economy, Recreative Arts, Trades, etc.

SECOND EDITION. SEPTEMBER, 1871.

NOTE. — One volume at a time can be had in home use from the Lower Hall, and one from the Bates Hall; and a Lower Hall volume must always be returned at that Hall, accompanied by the applicant's Library card, within such hours as the Rules prescribe. No book can be taken from the Lower Hall, while the applicant has one from any Branch.

Books can be kept out 14 days, but may be renewed within that time, by presenting a new slip with the card; after 14 days a fine of two cents for each day is incurred, and after 21 days the book will be sent for at the cost of the borrower, who cannot take another book until all charges are paid.

Books must not be lent out of the household of the borrower, nor be kept by transfers in one household more than one month, and must remain in the Library one week before being drawn again in the same household.

Borrowers finding any book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it, as also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

Consult the daily manuscript Bulletin and the printed Bulletins for recent additions to this department.

Recommend for purchase such books as the Library does not have, on slips provided at the desk, but remember that the Bates Hall Catalogues, as well as the Lower Hall Class Lists and consolidated Bulletins, should be examined before concluding that a book does not belong to the Library.

NOTICE.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth: —

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence."

COPIES ARE FOR SALE AT THE DESK.

EXPLANATIONS.

Books are entered in the following List under the names of authors, when known; under the initials of the authors' names when these only appear, the last initial being put first; under the pseudonyms, or assumed names, of the writers, when the real names are not ascertained; under the names of editors of collections; under the names of governments, societies, or other bodies which are responsible for their publication. Such books are also entered under their titles, or their subjects, or both. In the case of an anonymous work, the author of which is unknown, the entry is under the first word of the title, not an article or a preposition. All editions of the Bible and its parts are entered under the word "Bible." Learned societies and public institutions are catalogued under their names, or under the names of the places where they are established, if these form a part of their official designation.

In the headings of the titles, the names of authors are given in their vernacular form. French surnames preceded by Le, La, or L, are entered under L; by Du or Des, under D; by de or d', under the initial letter of the name following this prefix. In English names, the prefix is treated as a component part of the surname; as in De Quincey, Van Ness. In all other languages, surnames are entered under the letter which begins the name that follows the prefix.

Compound surnames are, in most cases, entered under the first part of the name.

British noblemen and ecclesiastical dignitaries are entered under their family names with cross-references from their titular appellations. All other noblemen are catalogued under their titles.

A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as About, E. (F. V.) In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs, ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order, before Goldsmith, instead of after it. An italicized name within marks of parenthesis following the name of an author is the pseudonym of such author; as Agassiz, E. C. (Actæa). Brackets, within titles, inclose words added, or changed in form.

 Friends of the Public Library will assist in making future editions of this List more nearly perfect, if they will be kind enough to communicate to the Superintendent the corrections of any errors they may discover in it, the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.
